ANNOTATIONS

2 Hofpitality.) Hofpitality, that is, receiuing & harbouring of poore pilgrimes, perfecuted and defolate perfons, is fo acceptable to God and fo honourable, that often-times it hath been mens good hap to harbour Angels infteed of poore folke vnawares. Which muft needs be euer a great benediction to them and their families, as we fee by Abraham and Lot Gen. 18. & 19. (and the like fel alfo to S. Gregorie, as Io. Diaconus writeth, to whofe ordinarie table of poore men, not only Angels but Chrif alfo came in pilgrimes weed. in vit. li. 1. c. 10. & li. 2. c. 22. 23.) whereof if we had not example and warrant by S. Paules words in this place, and many other expresse Scriptures of the old Testament, these scornful miscreants of this time making so little account both of good workes and such miraculous entrance of Christ and his Angels into holy mens harbour, would make this also seeme fabulous, as they doe other like things.

4 Marriage honourable.) The Apostle (saith a holy Doctor) faith, Marriage honourable in al, and the bed undefiled. And therefore the seruants of God in that they are not married, thinke not the good of marriage to be a fault, but yet they doubt not perpetual continencie to be better then good marriage, specially in this time when it is said of continencie, He that can take, let him take. De fid. ad Pet. c. 3. apud Aug. in fine. Marke the doctrine of the Fathers and of the Catholike Church concerning matrimonie, that it is honourable, and so honourable, that it is a holy Sacrament, but yet inferiour to virginity and perpetual continencie: honourable in al, that is, al such as may lawfully marrie and are lawfully married: not in brother and sister, not in persons that haue vowed the contrarie, to whom the same Apostle saith it is damnable. 1. Tim. 5. v. 11. And this were the meaning of this place, if it were to be read thus, Marriage is honourable.

But to see how the Protestants in all their translations, to abuse the simple, doe falsifie this sentence of the Apostle, to make it serue for the marriage of Votaries, it is notorious. First, they vse deceit in supplying the verbe substantiue that wanteth, making it the Indicatiue mood thus, Marriage is honourable &c. as though the Apostle affirmed all marriage to be honourable or lawful, where the verbe to be supplied ought rather to be the Imperatiue mode, Let Marriage be honourable, that so the speech may be an exhortation or commandment to them that be or will be married, to vse themselves in that state in all fidelity, cleanness, & coniugal continencie one toward another: as when S. Peter also & this Apostle exhort married men to giue honour to their wiues as to the weaker vessels, and to possess their vessel in honour not in the passions of ignominie and uncleanness. This is honourable or chaste marriage, to which he here exhorteth. And that it is rather exhortation, then an affirmation, it is euident by the other parts and circumstances of this place both before & after: all which are exhortation in their owne translations. This only being in the middes, & as indifferent to be an exhortation as the rest (by their owne confession) they restraints of purpose. Our text therefore & all Catholike translations leaue the sentence indifferent as it is in the Greek, and as true translators ought to doe, not presuming to addict it to one side, lest they should restraints the sense of the Holy Ghost to their owne particular fantasie.

Againe, our new translators corrupt the text in that they translate, in omnibus, among all men, because so they thinke it would sound better to the ignorant, that Priests, Religious, and all whoeuer, may marrie: where they can not tel either by the Greek, or Latin, that in omnibus should be the mafculine gendre, rather then the neutre (as not only Erafmus, but the Greek Doctours alfo take it) to fignifie that marriage should be honourably kept between man & wife in al points and in al refpects. See S. Chryfoftom & Theoph. in hunc locū. For there may be many filthy abufes in wedlocke, which the Apoftle warneth them to take heed of, and to keep their marriage-bed vndefiled. But the third corruption for their purpofe aforefaid, and moft impudent, is, that fome of the Caluiniftes for, in omnibus, tranflate, inter quofuis, with a marginal interpretation to fignifie al orders, conditions, ftates, and qualities of men. So boldly they take away al indifferencie of fenfes, and make Gods word to fpeake iuft that which themfelues would, and their herefie requireth, in which kind they paffe al impudencie and al heretikes that euer were.

7 Remember your Prelates.) We be here warned to haue great regard in our life and beleefe, to the holy Fathers, Doctours and glorious Bishops gone before vs in God's Church, not doubting but they being our lawful Paftours, had and taught the truth: of whom S. Auguftin faid, That which they found in the Church, they held faft: that which they learned, they taught: that which they receiued of their Fathers, the fame they deliuered to their children. Cont. Iulian. li. 2. c. 10. Which refpect to our holy forefathers in faith, is now in this wicked contempt of the Heretikes, fo much the more to be had. See the faid holy Doctours fecond booke againft Iulian the Pelagian throughout, what great account he maketh of them in the confutation of herefies, and how farre he preferreth thē aboute the proud Sectmaifters of that time: as we muft now doe agaift our new Doctours. This place alfo is rightly vfed to proue that the Church of God should keep the memories of Saints departed, by folemne holidaiies & other deuout waies of honour.

9 Not with meats.) He fpeaketh not of Chriftian fafts, but of the legal difference of meats, which the Hebrewes were yet prone vnto, not confidering that by Chriftes faith they were made free from al fuch obferuations of the Law.

10 We haue an altar.) He putteth them in mind by thefe words, that in following too much their old Iewish rites, they depriued themfelues of another manner and a more excellent Sacrifice and meat: meaning, of the holy altar, and Chriftes owne bleffed body offered and eaten there. Of which, they that continue in the figures of the old Law, could not be partakers. This altar, (faith Ifychius) is the altar of Chriftes body, which the Iewes for their incredulity muft not behold. Li. 6. c. 21. in Leuit. And the Greek word (as alfo the Hebrew, anfwering thereunto in the old Teftament) fignifieth properly an altar to Sacrifice on and not a metaphorical and fpiritual altar. Whereby we proue againft the Heretikes, that we haue not a common table or profane cōmunion-bord, to eate meer bread vpon, but a very altar in the proper fenfe, to Sacrifice Chriftes body vpon: and fo called of the Fathers in refpect of the faid body facrificed. Greg. Nazianz. in orat. de forore. Gorgonia. Chryf. demmonft. quid Chriftus fit Deus, Socrat. li. 1. c. 20. 25. Aug. ep. 86. De diu. Dei. li. 8. c. 27. & li. 21. c. 10. Confeff. li. 9. c. 11. 13. Cont. Fauft. Manich. li. 20. c. 21. Theophyl. in 13. Mat. And when it is called a table, it is in refpect of the heauenly food of Chrifts body and bloud receiued.

15 The hoft of praife.) Though it may fignifie the fpiritual Sacrifice of praife and thāks-giuing of what fort foeuer: yet it fpecially may be thought to fignifie the great Sacrifice of the B. body and bloud of Chrift: not as vpon the Croffe, which was but once done in bloody fort, but as in the Church and new Teftament, where it is daily done vnbloudily, being the proper hoft of laud and thanks-giuing and therefore called the Eucharift, and being the fruit and effect of Chrift and his Prieftes lips or words, that is of confecration. Becaufe this Sacrifice is made by the force of the holy words. And when we read in the pfalme and other places of the old Teftament, of the hoft of praife, it may be thought to be a prophecie of the new Sacrifice, and not of euery vulgar thanks-giuing. And fo the old Fathers in the primitiue Church to hide the myfteries from the vnworthy or heathen, often fpeake. What is (faith S. Auguftin) a more holy Sacrifice of praife, then that which confifteth in thanks-giuing, al which the faithful doe know in the facrifice of the Church. Li. 1. cont. aduerf. leg. & proph. c. 18. Againe, c. 20. The Church from the times of the Apoftles by the moft certaine fucceffion of Bishops, offereth to God in the body of Chrift the Sacrifice of praife. And a litle afterward: Now Irael according to the fpirit, that is, the Church offereth a fingular Sacrifice according to the fpirit: of whole houfe he wil not take calues nor goats, but wil take the Sacrifice of praife, not according to the order of Aarō, but according to the order of Melchifedech. See ep. 120. c. 19. & ep. 57. ad q. 1. in fine. Thus you fee, when the holy Fathers handle the Scriptures, they find Maffe and Sacrifice in many places, where the ignorant heretikes or the fimple might thinke they fpeake only of a common thanks-giuing.

16 God is promerited.) This latin word promeretur, can not be expreffed effectually in any one English word. It fignifieth, Gods fauour to be procured by the forefaid workes of alme and charitie, as by the deferts and merits of the doers. Which doctrine & word of merits the Aduerfaries like fo il, that they flye both here and els-where from the word, trāflating here for promeretur Deus, God is pleaſed, more neere to the Greek, as they pretend. Which indeed maketh no more for them then the latin, which is agreeable to moft ancient copies, as we fee by Primafius S. Auguftines fcholer. For if God be pleaſed with good workes and shew fauour for them, then they are meritorious, and then only faith is not the caufe of Gods fauour to men.

The Sacrifice of the altar is the principal hoft of praife and thanks-giuing, therfore called, Euchariftia.

The Proteftants auoid the word merit.

Good workes meritorious.

17 Obey your Prelates.) There is nothing more inculcated in the holy Scriptures, then obedience of the lay people to the Priests and Prelates of Gods Church, in matters of foule, confcience, and religion. Whereof the Apofte giueth this reason, becaufe they haue the charge of mens foules, and muft anfwer for them: which is an infinit preeminence and fuperiority, ioyned with burden, and requireth maruelous fubmiffion and moft obedient fubiectiō of al that be vnder them and their gouernement. From this obedience there is no exception nor exemption of Kings nor Princes, be they neuer fo great. If they haue foules, and be Chriftian men, they muft be fubiect to fome Bishop, Prielt, or other Prelate. And whatfoeuer he be (though Emperour of al the world) if he take vpon him to prefcribe and giue lawes of religion to the Bishops and Prielts, whom he ought to obey and be fubiect vnto in religiō, he fhall be damned vndoubtedly, except he repent, becaufe he doth againft the exprefse word of God and law of nature. And by this you may fee the difference of an heretical and a difordered time, from other Catholike Chriftian daies. For herefie and the like damnable reuolts from the Church of God, is no more but a rebellion and difobedience to the Prielt of Gods Church, when men refufe to be vnder their difcipline, to heare their doctrine, and interpretation of Scriptures, to obey their lawes and counfels. This difobedience and rebellion from the Spiritual Gouernour, vnder pretence of obedience to the Temporal, is the bane of our daies, and fpecially of our Countrie, where thefe new Sects are properly maintained by this falfe principle, That the Prince in matters of foule and religion may command the Prelate: which is directly and euidently againft this Scripture and al other, that command the sheep of Chriftes fold to obey their fpiritual Officers.

The Apofte doth inculcate obedience to the Prielts and Bishops of Gods Church.

No perfon exempted from this obediēce, in matters of religion.
