

Chapter 2

What to preach both to old and yong (not only with word but with example also) and to seruants. 11. For there are of al forts in the Church, and they muft be inftructed accordingly.

But doe thou fpeake the things that become found doctrine. ² Old men that they be sober, chafft, wife, found in the faith, in loue, in patience. ³ Old women in like manner in holy attire, not il fpeakers, not giuen to much wine: teaching wel, ⁴ that they may teach the yong women wifedom, to loue their hufbands, to loue their children, ⁵ wife, chafft, sober, hauing a care of the houfe, gentle, fubieft to their hufbands, that the word of God be not blaſphemed. ⁶ Yōg men in like manner exhort that they be sober. ⁷ In al things fhew thy ſelf an example of good workes, in doctrine, in integritie, in grauitie, ⁸ the word found, irreprehensible: that he which is on the contrarie part, may be afraid, hauing no euil to fay of vs. ⁹ Seruants to be fubieft to their Maifters, in al things pleaſing, not gainfaying: ¹⁰ not defrauding, but in al things fhewing good faith, that they may adorne the doctrine of our Sauour God in al things.
