He telleth forth the ftorie begun in the laft chapter, and how he reprehended Peter, 15. and then ſpecially vrgeth the enfample of the Chriftian Iewes, who fought vnto Chrift for iuftification, and that by warrant alfo of their Law it-ſelf, as alfo becauſe otherwiſe Chrift's death had been needles.

Then after fourteen yeares I went vp againe to Hieruſalem with Barnabas, taking Titus alſo with me. <sup>2</sup> And I went vp according to reuelation: and conferred with them the Ghofpel which I preach among the Gentils, but apart with them that ſeemed to be ſome-thing, left perhaps in vaine I ſhould runne or had runne. <sup>3</sup> But neither Titus which was with me, whereas he was a Gentil, was compelled to be circumciſed: <sup>4</sup> but becauſe of the falſe Brethren craftily brought in, which craftily came in to eſpie our libertie that we haue in Chrift IESVS, that they might bring vs into ſeruitude. <sup>5</sup> To whom we yealded not ſubiection no not for an houre, that the truth of the Ghofpel may remaine with you. <sup>6</sup> But of thẽ that ſeemed to be ſome-thing (what they were ſome-time, it is nothing to me. Deu. 10, 17. God accepteth not the perſon of man) for to me, they that ſeemed to be ſomething, added nothing. <sup>7</sup> But contrariewiſe when they had ſeen, that to me was committed the Ghofpel of the <sup>a</sup>)prepuce, as to Peter of the circumciſion (<sup>8</sup> for he that wrought in Peter to the Apoſtleſhip of circumciſion, wrought in me alſo among the Gentils) <sup>9</sup> and when they had knowen the grace that was giuen me, Iames and Cephas and Iohn, which ſeemed to be pillars, gaue to me and Barnabas the right hands of ſocietie: that we vnto the Gentils, & they vnto the circumciſion: <sup>10</sup> only that we ſhould be mindful of the poore: the which ſame thing alſo I was careful to doe.

κατὰ πρόσωπον <sup>11</sup> And when Cephas was come to Antioche, <sup>11</sup>I refifted him <sup>a)</sup> in face, becaufe he was <sup>11</sup>reprehensible. <sup>12</sup> For before that certaine came from Iames, he did eate with the Gentils: but when they were come, he withdrew and feperated himself, fearing them that were of the circumcifion. <sup>13</sup> And to his fimulation confented the reft of the Iewes, fo that Barnabas alfo was led of them into that fimulation. <sup>14</sup> But when I faw that they walked not rightly to the veritie of the Ghofpel, I faid to Cephas before them al: If thou being a Iew, liueft Gentil-like and not Iudaically, how doeft thou compel the Gentils to Iudaize?

Ro. 3, 19. 20. <sup>15</sup> We are by nature Iewes, and not of the Gentils, finners. <sup>16</sup> But knowing that man is not iuftified by the workes <sup>b)</sup> of the Law, but by the faith of IESVS Chrif; we alfo beleue in Chrif IESVS, that we may be iuftified by the faith of Chrif, and not by the workes of the Law: for the which caufe, by the workes of the Law no flesh fhall be iuftified. <sup>17</sup> But if feeking to be iuftified in Chrif, our felues alfo be found finners; is Chrif them a Minifter of finne? God forbid. <sup>18</sup> For if I build the fame things againe which I haue deftroied, I make my felf a preuaricatour. <sup>19</sup> For I by the Law, am dead to the Law, that I may liue to God: with Chrif I am nailed to the croffe. <sup>20</sup> And I liue, now not I; but Chrif liueth in me. And that that I liue now in the flesh, I liue in the faith of the Sonne of God, who loued me, and deliuered himfelf for me. <sup>21</sup> I caft not away the grace of God. For if iuftice be by the Law, then Chrif died in vaine.

<sup>b</sup> By this & by the difcourfe of this whole epiftle, you may perceiue, that when iuftification is attributed to faith, the workes of Charitie be not excluded, but the workes of Moyfes law: that is, the ceremonies, Sacrifices, and Sacraments thereof principally, and confequently al workes done merely by nature & free-wil, without the faith, grace, fpirit, and aid of Chrif.

ANNOTATIONS

2 Conferred with them.) Though S. Paul were taught his Ghospel of God and not of man, and had an extraordinarie calling by Chrift himself, yet by reuelation he was sent to Hierufalem to conferre the said Ghospel which he preached, with his elders the ordinarie Apostles and Rulers of the Church, to put both his vocation and doctrine to their trial and approbation, and to ioyne in office, teaching, and societie or communion with them. For there is no extraordinarie or miraculous vocation, that can feuer or separate the person so called, in doctrine or fellowship of Chriftian life and religion, from the ordinarie known societie of God's people and Priests. Therefore whosoever he be (vpon what pretence soever) that wil not haue his calling and doctrine tried by the ordinarie Gouerners of God's Church, or disdaine to goe vp to the principal place of our religion, to conferre with Peter and other pillars of the Church, it is euident that he is a false Teacher, a Schismaticke, and an Heretike. By which rule you may trie al your new Teachers of Luther's or Caluin's schoole: who neuer did nor euer durst put their preaching to such conference or trial of holy Councel or Bishops, as they ought to doe, and would doe, if it were of God, as S. Paules was.

2 In vaine.) Though S. Paul doubted not of the truth of the Ghospel which he preached, knowing it to be of the holy Ghost; yet because other men could not, nor would not acknowledge so much, til it were allowed by such as were without al exception known to be Apostles & to haue the spirit of truth, to discern whether the vocation, spirit, & Ghospel of Paul were of God, he knew he should otherwise without conference with them, haue lost his labour, both for the time past and to come. He had not had (saith S. Hierom) securitie of preaching the Ghospel, if it had not been approued by Peter's sentence & the rest that were with him. Hiero ep. 89. c. 2. See Tertul. li. 4. cont. Marc. nu. 3. Therefore by reuelation he went to conferre with the Apostles at Hierufalem, that by them hauing his Apostleship and Ghospel liked and approued, he might preach with more fruit. Wherin we see, this holy Apostle did not as the seditious proud Heretikes doe now a-daies, which refusing al man's attestation or approbation, wil be tried by Scriptures only. As also we may learne that it is no such absurditie as the Aduersaries would make it, to haue Scriptures approued by the Churches testimony: seeing the Ghospel which S. Paul preached (being of as much certaintie and of the same Holy Ghost that the Scriptures be) was to be put in conference and examination of the Apostles, without al derogation to the truth, dignitie, or certaintie of the same. And the cauilling of Heretikes, that we make subiect God's Oracles to man's censure, and the Scriptures to haue no more force then the Church is content to grant vnto them, is vaine and false. For, to beare witness or to giue euidence or attestation

S. Paul conferreth with S. Peter and the rest, for trial of his doctrine.

The heretikes submit their doctrine to no trial of Bishops or Councel.

The approbation of S. Paules doctrine by Peter and the rest, was very requirit.

No absurditie that the Scriptures be approued by the Churches testimony.

The Church maketh not Canonical Scripture, but declareth that it is so.

that the preaching or writing of fuch, is true and of the Holy Ghoft, is not to make it true: no more then the Gold-smith or touch-ftone that trie and difcerne which is true gold, make it good gold; but they giue euidence to man that fo it is. And therefore that difputation alfo, whether the Scripture or the Church be of greater authoritie, is fuperfluous: either giuing teftimonie to the other, and both affured by the Holy Ghoft from al error: the Church yet being before the Scriptures, the fpoufe of Chrif, and proper dwelling, temple, or fubieft of God, and his graces: for the which Church the Scriptures were, and not the Church for the Scriptures. In which Church there is iudicial authoritie by office and iurifdiction to determine of doubtful queftions touching the fenfe of the Scriptures and other controuerfies in religion, & to punish difobedient perfons. Of which iudicial power the Scriptures be not capable; as neither the truths and determinations of the fame can be fo euident to men, nor fo agreeable and fit for euery particular refolution, as diuerfitie of times and perfons requireth. Certaine is the truth, and great is the authoritie of both: but in fuch diuers kinds, as they can not be wel compared together. The controuerfie is much like as if a man touching the ruling of a cafe in law or giuing fentence in a matter of queftion, should afke, whether the iudge, or the euidence of the parties, be of more authoritie or credit. Which were as friuolous a difpute, as it were a difordered part for any mã to fay, he would be tried by no other iudge but by his owne writings or euidēces. With fuch triflers and feditious perfons haue we to doe now a-daies in diuinitie, as were intolerable in any prophane fcience or facultie in the world.

The Scripture & Church cōpared together for antiquitie, authoritie, &c.

6 Added nothing.) The Ghofpel and preaching of S. Paul was wholly of God, and therefore though it were put to the Churches probatiō, as gold is to the touch-ftone; yet being found in al points pure, nothing could be altered or amended therin by the Apoftles. Euē fo the Scriptures which are indeed wholly of the Holy Ghofts enditing, being put to the Churches trial, are found, proued, and teftified vnto the world to be fuch, & not made true, altered, or amended by the fame. Without which atteftation of the Church, the holy Scriptures in themfelues were alwaies true before: but not fo known to be, to al Chriftians, nor they fo bound to take them. And that is the meaning of the famous fentence of S. Auguftin Cont. ep. fund. c. 5. which troubleth the Heretikes fo much: I would not beleue the Ghofpel (faith he) vnles the authoritie of the Church moued me.

The Scriptures alwaies true in themfelues, are fo known to be by the Church.

7 To Peter of the circumcifion.) We may not thinke, as the Heretikes deceitfully teach, that the charge of the Apoftles was fo diftincted, that none could preach or exercife iurifdiction but in thofe feveral places or towards thofe peoples or Prouinces only, wherunto by God's appointment or their owne lot or election, they were fpecially defigned. For, euery Apoftle might by Chriftes commiffion (Mat. 28. Goe, and teach al Nations) vfe al fpiritual function through the whole world. Yet for the more particular regard and care of Prouinces, and for peace and order fake, fome were appointed to one countrie, and fome to another: as, of the other Apoftles we fee in the Ecclefiaftical hiftories, and for S. Peter and S. Paul, it is plaine by this place & other, that to thē as to the two cheefe & moft renowned Apoftles, the Church of al Nations was giuen, as deuided into two parts, that is, Iewes and Gentils: the firft and principal being S. Peter's lot, that herein alfo he might refemble our Sauour, who was fent namely to the loft sheepe of Ifrael, and was properly the Minifter of the Circumcifion: the fecond being S. Paules, whom Chrift chofe fpecially to preach to the Gentils: Not fo for al that, that either he was limited to the Gentils only, (whom the Actes of the Apoftles report, in euery place, firft to haue entred into the Synagogues and preached Chrift to the Iewes, as he wrote alfo to the Hebrewes and euer had fpecial regard and honour to them:) or Peter fo bound to the Iewes only, that he could not meddle with the Gentils: feeing he was the man chofen of God, by whom the Gentils should firft beleeeue, who firft baptized them, and firft gaue order concerning them. Therefore the treacherie of Caluin is intolerable, that vpon this diftinction of the Apoftles charge, would haue the fimple fuppofe, that S. Peter could not be Bishop of Rome (fo might he barre S. Iohn from Ephefus alfo) nor deale among the Gentils, as a thing againft God's ordinance and the appointment between him and S. Paul: as though thereby the one had bound himfelf to the other, not to preach or meddle within his fellowes compaffe. And which is further moft feditious, he exhorteth al men to keep faft the forefaid compact, and rather to haue refpect to S. Paules Apoftleship, then to S. Peters: as though the preaching, authoritie, and Apoftleship of both were not a-like true, and al of one holy Spirit, whether they preached to Iewes or Gentils, as both did preach vnto both peoples, as is already proued, and at length, partly by the daily decay of the Iewish ftate and there incredulitie, and partly for that in Chriftianitie the diftinction of Iew and Gentil ceafed after a feafon, both went to the cheefe citie of the Gentils, and there founded the Church common to the Hebrewes and al Nations, Peter firft, and Paul afterward. And therefore Tertul. faith, de Præfcript. nu. 14. O happie Church, to which the Apoftles powred out al doctrin with their bloud! Where Peter fuffereth like to our Lord's Paffion, where Paul is crowned with Iohn (Baptift's) death.

The Apoftles commiffion general through the world, & yet peculiar to certaine Prouinces.

9 Gaue the right hands of focietie.) There is and alwaies ought to be, a common fellowship and fraternitie of al Paftours and Preachers of the Church. Into which focietie whofoeuer entreteth not, but ftandeth in Schifme and feparation from Peter and the cheefe Apoftolike Paftours, what pretence foeuer he hath, or whence foeuer he chalengeth authoritie, he is a wolfe, and no true Paftour. Which vnion and communion together was fo neceffarie Iewes and Gentils fpecially committed to the two principal Apoftles.

Neither Peter only of the Iewes, nor Paul Apoftle of the Gentils only.

Caluin's foolish reafon that Peter was not B. of Rome, & his derogation from Peters Apoftleship.

The Church founded at Rome by S. Peter and S. Paul.

euen in S. Pauls case, that, notwithstanding his special calling of God, yet the Holy Ghost caused him to goe vp to his elder Apostles to be receiued into their fellowship or brotherhood. For it is to be noted, that SS. Peter, Iames, and Iohn were not sent to S. Paul, to ioine with him or to be tried for their doctrine and calling, by him: but contrariwise he was sent to them as to the cheefe & knowne ordinarie Apostles. They therefore gaue Paul their hands, that is to say, took him into their societie, and not he them. And S. Hierom's rule concerning this, shal be found true to the worlds end, speaking of S. Peter's Successour: He that gathereth not with thee, scattereth. Ep. 57. And in another place for the same cause he calleth Rome, tutissimum Communions portum, the most safe and sure haue of communion or societie. Ep. 16. c. 4. And whereas the Heretikes by this also would proue that Peter had no preeminence aboue Paul being his fellow Apostle, it is ridiculous. As though al of one fellowship or brotherhood be alwaies equal; or as though there were not order and gouernment, superiortie and inferioritie, in euery societie wel appointed. And they might perceiue by this whole passage, that Peter was the special, and in more singular sort the Apostle of the Iewes, though Iames and Iohn were also: as S. Paul is also called in more singular sort the Apostle and Doctour of the Gentils then S. Barnabas, and yet they were both alike taken here into this societie, as they were both at once and alike segregated into this ministration, and ordered together. Act. 13. It is a poore reason then to say or thinke, S. Peter not to be aboue S. Barnabas neither, because of this societie and fellowship vnto which he was receiued together with S. Paul.

The Heretikes ridiculous argument against Peter's preeminence.

11 I refuted him.) Wicked Porphyrie (as S. Hierom writeth) chargeth S. Paul of enuie & malapert boldnes, and S. Peter of error Præm. Comment. in Galat. Euen so the like impious sonnes of Cham, for this, and for other things, gladly charge S. Peter, as though he had committed the greatest crimes in the world. For, it is the propertie of Heretikes and ill men, to be glad to see the Saints reprehended and their faults discovered, as we may learne in the writings of S. Augustine against Faustus the Manichee, who gathered out al the acts of the holy Patriarches, that might seeme to the People to be worthy blame. Whom the said holy Doctour defendeth at large against him: as both he, and before him S. Cyprian, find here vpon this Apostles reprehension, much matter of praising both their vertues: S. Pauls great zeale, & S. Peters wonderful humilitie: that the one in the cause of God would not spare his Superiour, and that the other, in that excellent dignitie, would not take it in ill part, nor by allegation of his Supremacie disdaine or refuse to be controlled by his Iunior. Which of the two they count the greater grace and more to be imitated. For neither Peter (saith S. Cyprian) whom our Lord chose the first, and vpon whom he built the Church, when Paul disputed with him of circumcision, challenged insolently or arrogantly tooke any thing to

The Heretikes maliciously derogate from S. Peter.

Pauls reprehension of Peter teacheth vs the zeale of the one, and humilitie of the other.

himself, saying that he had the Primacie, and therefore the later Disciples ought rather to obey him. ep. 71. ad Quintum nu. 2. And S. Auguftin ep. 19. c. 2. in fine. That (faith he) which was done of Paul profitably by the libertie of charitie, the fame Peter tooke in good part by holy and benigne, Godlines of humilitie, and fo he gaue vnto pofteritie a more rare and holy example, if at any time perhaps they did amiffe, to be content to be corrected of their Iuniors, then Paul, to be bold and confident: yea the inferiours to refift their betters for defending the truth of the Ghofpel, brotherly charitie alwaies preferred. By which notable fpeeches of the Doctours we may alfo fee how friuoloufly the Heretikes argue hereupon, that S. Peter could not be Superiour to S. Paul, being fo reprehended of him: whereas the Fathers make it an example to the Superiours, to beare with humilitie the correption or controlement euen of their inferiours. Namely by this example S. Auguftin (li. 2. de Bapt. c. 1.) excellently declareth, that the B. Martyr S. Cyprian, who walked awry touching the rebaptizing of them that were chriftned of Heretikes, could not, nor would not haue been offended to be admonished & reformed in that point by his fellowes or inferiours, much leffe by a whole Councel. We haue learned, faith he, that Peter the Apoftle, in whom the Primacie of the Apoftles by excellent grace is fo preeminent, when he did otherwife concerning circumcifion then the truth required, was corrected of Paul the later Apoftle. I thinke (without any reproch vnto him) Cyprian the Bishop may be compared to Peter the Apoftle: howbeit I ought rather to feare left I be iniurious to Peter. For who knoweth not that the principalitie of Apoftleship is to be preferred before any dignitie of Bishop whatfoeuer? But if the grace of the Chaires or Sees differ, yet the glorie of the Martyrs is one. And who is fo dull that can not fee, that the inferiour though not by office and iurisdiction, yet by the law of brotherly loue and fraternal correption, may reprehend his fuperiour? Did euer any man wonder that a good Prieft or any vertuous perfon should tell the Pope, or any other great Prelate, or greateft Prince in earth, their faults? Popes may be reprehended, & are iuftly admonished of their faults, & ought to take in in good part, and fo they doe & euer haue done, when it commeth of zeale & loue, as of S. Paul, Irenæus, Cyprian, Hierom, Auguftin, Bernard: But of Simon Magus, Nouatus, Iulian, Wicliffe, Luther, Caluin, Beza, that doe it of malice, & raile no leffe at their vertues then their vices, of fuch (I fay) God's Prelates muft not be taught nor corrected, though they muft patiently take it, as our Sauour did the like reproches of the malicious Iewes; and as Dauid did the malediction of Semei. 2. Reg. 1.

11 Reprehensible.) The Heretikes hereof againe inferre, that Peter thē did erre in faith, and therefore the Popes may faile therein alfo. To which we anwer, that how foeuer other Popes may erre in their priuate teachings or writings, wherof we haue

It proueth nothing againft Peter's fuperioritie, that he was reprehended.

The fuperiour may be reprehended or admonished of the inferiour.

Heretikes reprehension of Catholike Bishops is rather railing.

S. Peter's error was not in faith, but in conuerfation or behauiour.

Luc. 22, 32. treated before in the Annotation vpon these words, That thy faith faile not: it is certaine that S. Peter did not here faile in faith, nor erre in doctrine or knowledge. For it was conuerfationis, non prædictionis vitium, as Tertullian faith de præscript. nu. 7. It was a default in conuerfation, life, or regiment, which may be committed of any man, be he neuer fo holy, and not in doctrine. S. Auguftin and whofoeuer make moft of it, thinke no otherwife of it. But S. Hierom and many other holy Fathers deeme it to haue been no fault at al, nor any other thing then S. Paul himfelf did vpon the like occafion: and that this whole combat was a fet thing agreed vpon between them. It is a fchoole point much debated betwixt S. Hierom and S. Auguftin. ep. 9. 11. 19. apud Auguft.
