Chapter 6

Hauing with five loaves fed five thousand 16. (walking also the night after vpon the sea) 22. on the morow the people thereupon reforting vnto him, 27. he preacheth vnto them of the Bread which he wil giue: telling them that he is come from Heauen, and therfore able to give fuch bread as can guicken the world, euen his owne flesh: and that al his Elect shal believe as much. 60. Many notwithstanding doe murmur at this doctrine yea and become apostates, though he tel them that they shal fee by his Afcention into Heauen, that he is defcended from Heauen. But the Twelue fticke vnto him, Peter in al their names confessing that he is God Omnipotent. 70. Among which twelve yet (that no man be fcandalized) he fignifieth that he foreknoweth which wil become a traitour: as among the forefaid, which would become apostates.

The 3. part. His Actes in Galilee, & in Iewrie, about the third Pasche and after.

Mt. 14, 13. Mr. 6, 32. Luc. 9, 10.

fter thefe things IESVS went beyond the fea of Galilee, which is of Tiberias. <sup>2</sup> and a great multitude followed him, because they saw the fignes which he did vpon those that were ficke. <sup>3</sup> IESVS therfore went vp into the mountaine, and there he fate with his Difciples. <sup>4</sup> And the Pafche was at hand, the feftiual day of the Iewes. <sup>5</sup> When IESVS therfore had lifted vp his eies, and faw that a very great multitude commeth to him, he faith to Philippe: Whence fhal we buie bread, that these may eate? 6 And this he said, tempting him. For himfelf knew what he would doe? <sup>7</sup> Philippe answered him: Two hundred penie worth of bread is not fufficient for them, that every man may take a litle peece. 8 One of his Disciples, Andrew the brother of Simon Peter, faith to him: <sup>9</sup> There is a boy here that hath five barley loaues, & two fishes; but what are these among so many? 10 IESVS therefore faith: Make the men to fit downe. And there was much graffe in the place. The men therfore fate downe, in number about five thousand. 11 IESVS therfore tooke the loaues: and when he had given thankes, he diftributed to them that fate. In like manner also of the fishes as much as they would. <sup>12</sup> And after they were filled, he faid to his Disciples: Gather the fragments that are remaining, left they be loft. <sup>13</sup> They gathered therfore, and filled twelue baskets with fragments of the fiue barley loaues, which remained to them that had eaten. <sup>14</sup> Those men therfore when they had seen what a signe IESVS had done, said, That this is the Prophet indeed that is to come into the world. <sup>15</sup> IESVS therfore when he knew that they would come to take him, and make him King, he fled into the mountaine himself alone.

Mt. 14, 23. Mr. 6, 46.

<sup>16</sup> And when euen was come, his Difciples went downe to the fea. <sup>17</sup> And when they were gone vp into the ship, they came beyond the fea into Capharnaum: And now it was darke and IESVS was not come vnto them. <sup>18</sup> And the fea arofe, by reafon of a great wind that blew. <sup>19</sup> When they had rowed therfore about fiue and twentie or thirtie furlongs, they fee IESVS walking vpon the fea, and to draw nigh to the ship, and they feared. <sup>20</sup> But he faid to them: It is I, feare not <sup>21</sup> They would therfore haue taken him into the ship: and forthwith the ship was at the land to which they went.

<sup>22</sup> The next day, the multitude that ftood beyond the fea, faw that there was no other boat there but one, and that IESVS had not entred into the boat with his Difciples, but that his Difciples only were departed.

<sup>23</sup> But other boats came in from Tiberias befide the place where they had eaten the bread, our Lord <sup>a)</sup>giuing thankes.

<sup>24</sup> When therfore the multitude faw that IESVS was not there, nor his Difciples, they went vp into the boats, & came to Capharnaum feeking IESVS.

<sup>25</sup> And when they had found him beyond the fea, they faid to him: Rabbi, when cameft thou hither?

<sup>26</sup> IESVS answered them, and faid: Amen, amen I fay to you, you feeke me not because you have feene fignes, but because you did eate of the loaues, and were filled.

the meate that perifheth, but that endureth vnto life euerlafting, which the Sonne of man wil giue you. For him the Father, God, hath figned. <sup>28</sup> They faid therfore vnto him: What shal we doe that we may worke the workes of God? <sup>29</sup> IESVS answered, and faid to them: This is the worke of God, that you believe in him whom he hath fent. <sup>30</sup> They faid therfore to him: What figne therfore doeft thou, that we may fee, and may believe thee? what workeft thou?

Exo. 16, 4. 14. Pf. 77, 24.

31 Our Fathers did eate Manna in the defert as it is written, Bread from Heauen he gaue them to eate. <sup>32</sup> IESVS therfore faid to them: <sup>a)</sup>Amen, amen I fay to you, Moyfes gaue you not the bread from Heauen, but my Father giueth you the true breadfrom Heauen. 33 For the bread of God it is that descendeth from Heauen, and giueth life to the world. <sup>34</sup> They faid therfore vnto him: Lord, give vs alwaies this bread. <sup>35</sup> And IESVS faid to them: I am the bread of life, he that commeth to me, shal not hunger; and he that beleeueth in me, shal neuer thirft. <sup>36</sup> But I faid to you that both you have feen me and you believe not. <sup>37</sup> Al that the Father giveth me, shal come to me; and him that commeth to me I wil not caft forth. <sup>38</sup> Because I descended from Heauen, not to doe mine owne wil, but the wil of him that fent me. <sup>39</sup> For this is the wil of him that fent me, the Father; that all that he hath given me I leefe not thereof, but raife it in the laft day. 40 And this is the wil of my Father that fent me; that every one that feeth the Sonne, and beleeueth in him, haue life euerlafting, & I wil raife him in the laft day.

<sup>41</sup> The Iewes therfore murmured at him, because he had faid, I am the bread which descended from Heauen; <sup>42</sup> and they faid: Is not this IESVS the sonne of Ioseph, whose father and mother we know? How then faith he, That I descended from Heauen? <sup>43</sup> IESVS therfore answered and faid to them: Murmure not one to another: <sup>44</sup> no man can come to me, vnles the Father that fent me, *draw him, and I wil raife him vp in the laft day. <sup>45</sup> It is written in the Prophets: And al shal be docible of God. Euery one that hath heard of the Father, & hath learned, cometh to me. <sup>46</sup> Not that any mã hath feen the Father, but he which is of God; this hath fee the Father. <sup>47</sup> Ame, amen I fay to you: He that beleeueth in me, hath life euerlafting. <sup>48</sup> I am the bread of life. <sup>49</sup> Your fathers did eate *Manna in the defert; and they died. <sup>50</sup> This is the bread that defcendeth from Heauen: that if any man eate of it, he die not. <sup>51</sup> I am the liuing bread, that came downe from Heauen. If any man eate of this bread, he fhal liue for euer: and the bread which I wil giue, is my flesh for the life of the world.

Mt. 26, 26. Mr. 14, 22.

Lu. 22, 19. 1. Cor. 11, 24.

<sup>52</sup> The Iewes therfore ftroug among themselues, faying: How can this man give vs his flesh to eate? 53 IESVS therfore faid to them: Amen, amen I fay to you, Norles you eate the flesh of the Sonne of man, And drinke his bloud, bloud, bloud if an ot haue life in you. 54 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my bloud, hath life euerlafting; and I wil raife him vp in the laft day. 55 For my flesh, is meate indeed: and my bloud is drinke indeed. <sup>56</sup> He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my bloud, abideth in me, and I in him. <sup>57</sup> As the liuing Father hath fent me, and I liue by the Father: and he that eateth me, the fame also shal liue by me. 58 This is the bread that came downe from Heauen. Not as your Fathers did eate Manna, and died. ⁴He that eateth this bread, shal liue for euer. <sup>59</sup> Thefe things he faid teaching in the Synagogue, in Capharnaum.

Io. 3, 13.

60 Many therfore of his Difciples hearing it, faid: This faying is hard, and who can heare it? 61 But IESVS knowing with himfelf that his Difciples murmured at this, he faid to them: Doth this fcandalize you? 62 If then you shal fee the Sonne of man afcend where he was before? 63 It is the fpirit that quickeneth, the flesh profiteth nothing. The wordes that I haue fpoken to you, be fpirit and life. 64 But there be certaine of you that beleeue not. For IESVS knew from the beginning who they were that did not beleeue, and who he was that would betray him. 65 And he faid: Therfore did I fay to you, that no man can come to me, vnles it be given him of my Father. <sup>66</sup> After this many of his Disciples went backe: and now they walked not with him.

<sup>67</sup> IESVS therfore faid to the Twelue: What, wil you also depart? <sup>68</sup> Simon Peter therfore answered him: Lord, to whom shal we goe? thou hast the wordes of eternal life. <sup>69</sup> And we believe and have knowen that thou art Christ the Sonne of God. <sup>70</sup> IESVS answered them: Haue not I chosen you the Twelue; and of you one is a Diuel? <sup>71</sup> And he meant Iudas Iscariot, Simons sone: for this same was to betray him, whereas he was one of the Twelue.

Annotations

27 Worke not the meate) By their greedy feeking after him for meate of the bodie, he taketh occasion to draw them to the defire of a more excellent food which he had to give them, and so by litle and litle to open vnto them the great meate and mysterie of the B. Sacrament: which (as he proueth) doth not only far passe their ordinarie bread or his maruelous multiplied loaues, but Manna it felf, which they thought came from Heauen, and so much wondered at it.

32 The true bread) Though the Perfon of Chrift incarnate, euen out of the Sacrament alfo, be meant vnder the Metaphores of bread and drinke from Heauen: and our beleefe in him, be fignified by eating and feeding: yet the causes why they should be recommended vnto vs in fuch termes, were, that he was to be eaten and drunken indeed in the formes of bread & wine: for the which caufe his bodie on the croffe is called his bread: and his bloud flied on the croffe, the bloud of the grape: no doubt because the fame bodie and bloud were in the Holy Sacrament to be eaten and drunken. In which speaches, either of Christs Person generally, or peculiarly of the fame as in the B. Sacrament, the true bread is not taken properly and specially for that substance which is of corne, and called with vs bread; but generally for food or meate: and therfore it hath ioyned with it lightly a terme fignifying a more excellent fort of fubftance: as, the true bread, the bread of Heauen, the bread of life, Superfubstantial bread. In which fort the holy Sacrament which is Chrifts bodie, is both here, and in S. Luke and S. Paul alfo, often called bread euen after confecration: not only for that it was made of bread, but because it is bread more truly, and by more excellent property and calling, then that which ordinarily is named bread.

44 Draw him) The Father draweth vs and teacheth vs to come to his Sonne, and to believe these high and hard mysteries of his incarnation and of feeding vs with his owne substance in the Sacrament: not compelling or violently forcing any against their wil or without any respect of their consent, as Heretikes pretend; but by the sweet internal motions and persuations of his grace and spirit he wholy maketh vs of our owne wil and liking to consent to the same.

God draweth vs with our free-wil.

49 Manna and died) The Heretikes holding the Fathers of the old Testament to have eaten of the same meate, and to have had as good Sacraments as we, be here refuted: Chrift putting a plaine difference in the very fubftance thereof, and in the graces and effects much more at large. Manna was only a figure of the B. Sacrament, though a very excellent figure thereof for many caufes. It came in a fort from heaven, our Sacrament more: it was made by God miraculoufly, our Sacrament more: it was to be eaten for the time of their peregrination, our Sacrament more: it was to euery man what he liked beft, our Sacrament more: a litle thereof ferued and fufficed as wel as much, our Sacrament more: it was referred for fuch daies as it could not be gathered, and our Sacrament much more: it was kept for a memorial in the arke of the Testament, our Sacrament much more: the discontented and incredulous murmured and gainfayed it, at our Sacrament much more: it fuftained their bodies in the defert, our Sacrament, both bodie and foule much more.

52 How can this man?) It came not to their mind that nothing was impossible to God, that wickedly faid, How can this man giue vs his flesh? but we may make great profit of their finne, beleeuing the Mysteries, and taking a leffon, neuer to fay or once thinke, How? for it is a lewish word and worthy al punishment. So faith, S. Cyril. li. 4. c. 13. in Io. Neuertheles if one asked only for defire to learne in humilitie, as our Ladie did touching her hauing a child in her virginitie, then he must take the Angels answer to her, That it is of the Holy Ghost. So faith S. Damascene li. 4. c. 14.

In the B. Sacrament, How is a Iewish word.

53 Vnles you eate) Chrift commending the Sacrament of the faithful vnto vs, faid, Except you eate &c you cã not haue life in you So the life faith of life: and to him that thinketh the life to be a lier, this meate shal be death & not life to him. Leo thus: Because our Lord faith, Except you eate &c let vs so communicate that we nothing doubt of the truth of Christs bodie and bloud: for that is received with mouth, which is believed in hart: and they answer Amen in vaine, that dispute against that which they receive.

The real prefence.

53 And drinke) This the Protestants alleage for the necessitie of receiuing in both kindes: but in respect of themselues (who lightly hold all this chapter to pertain nothing to the Sacramental receiuing, but to spiritual feeding on Christ by faith only) it can make nothing for one kind or other. And in refpect of vs Catholikes, who believe Chrifts whole Perfon both humanitie and Diuinitie, both flesh and bloud to be in either forme, and to be wholy received no leffe in the first, then in the second or in both, this place commandeth nothing for both the kindes.

53 You shal not have life) Though the Catholikes teach these wordes to be spoken of the Sacrament, yet they meane not (no more then our Sauiour here doth) to exclude al from faluation, that receive not actually and Sacramentally vnder one or both kindes. For then children that die after they be baptized and neuer received Sacramentally, should perish: which to hold, were heretical. Neither did S. Augustine meane, applying these words to infants also, that they could not be faued without receiuing facramentally, as not only the Heretikes, but Erafmus did vnlearnedly miftake him: but his fenfe is that they were by the right of their Baptisme ioyned to Christs bodie Mystical, & thereby fpiritually partakers of the other Sacramet also of Christs bodie & bloud. As al Catholike me that be in prison, ioyning with the Church of God in hart & defire to receive & be partakers with the Church of this Sacrament, and those specially that deuoutly heare Maffe & adore in prefence the bodie & bloud of Chrift, ioyning in hart with the Prieft, al these receive life & fruit of the Sacramet, though at every time they receive not facramentally in one or both kinds. And although in the Primitiue Church the Holy Sacrament in the fecond kind were often given euen to infants to fanctifie them, yet (as the holy Councel hath declared)

it was neuer miniftred vnto them with opinion that they could not be faued without it. And therfore the Heretikes doe vntruly The Sacramental receiving of Chrifts bodie, not alwaies necessarie to faluation.

charge the Church & Fathers with that errour. 54 I wil raife him) As the Sonne liueth by the Father, euen fo doe we liue by his flesh, faith S. Hilarie. li. 8. de Trin. Though by nature of our flesh we And S. Cyril againe thus: be corruptible, yet by participation of life we are reformed to the propertie of life. For not only our foules were to be lifted vp by the Holy Ghoft to life euerlafting, but this rude groffe terreftrial body of ours is to be reduced to immortalitie, by touching, tafting, & eating this agreable food of Chrifts body. And when Chrift faith: I wil raife him vp, he meaneth that this body which he eateth, shal raife him. Our flesh (faith Tertullian) eateth the body and bloud of Chrift, that the foule may also be fatted. Therfore they shall both haue one reward at the Refurrection. And S. Irenæus: How doe they affirme that our bodies be not capable of life euerlafting, which is nourished by the body and bloud of our Lord? Either let them change their opinion, or els ceafe to offer the Eucharift. S. Gregorie Nyffene also faith: That lively bodie entring into our bodie, changeth it and maketh it like and immortal.

But the holy Bodie of Chrift is the true food nourishing to life euerlafting, and his bloud the true drinke that driueth death away vtterly, for they be not the bodie and bloud of a mere man, but of him that being joyned to life is made life and therfore are we the bodie and members of Chrift, because by this benediction of the mysterie we receive the Sonne of God himfelf. the life of the foule there is no difference whether a man receive both kinds or one. Because our Sauiour who before attributed life to the eating & drinking of his bodie & bloud doth here also affirme the fame effect, which is life euerlafting, to come of eating only vnder one forme. Therfore the Heretikes be feditious calumniatours that would make the people believe, the Catholike Church and Priefts to have defrauded them of the grace & benefit of one of the kinds in the Sacrament. Nay, it is they that have defrauded the world, by taking away both the real fubstance of Christ, and the grace from one kind and both kinds, and from al other Sacra-The Church doth only (by the wifedom of God's Spirit and by inftruction of Chrift & his Apoftles, according to time and place, for God's most honour, the reuerece of the Sacrament, & the peoples most profit therby) dispose of the manner & order how the Prieft, how the people shal receive, & al other Particular points, which himfelf (faith S. Augustine) did not take order for, that he might commit that to the Apoftles, by whom he was to difpose his Churches affaires. Whereby the Church being warranted and in the ruling of fuch things fully taught by God's Spirit, as wel for the reprouing of certaine heretikes, that Chrift God and man was not whole and al in euery part of the Sacrament, as specially for that the Christia people being now enlarged, and the communicants often fo many at once, that neither fo much wine could be conveniently confecrated, nor without manifold accidents of sheding or abusing be received (wherof the Protestants have no regard, because it is but common wine which they occupie, but the Church knowing it to be Chrifts owne bloud, muft have all dreadful regard) therfore I fay she hath decreed and for fome hundreth years put in vie that the Prieft faying Maffe, should alwaies both confecrate and also receive both Receiuing in one or both kinds, indifferent, according to the holy kinds, because he must expresse liuely the Passion of Christ, and the separation of his bloud from his bodie in the same, & for to imitate the whole action & inftitution as wel in facrificing as receiuing, as to whom properly it was said: Doe this; for that was spoken only to such as haue power therby to offer and cosecrate: But the Lay men, & the Clergie also when they doe not execute or say Masse themselves should receive in one kind, being therby no lesse partakers of Christs whole Person and grace, then if they received both. For (as S. Paul saith) He that eateth the hostes, is partaker of the Altar. He that eateth, saith he: for though there were drinke-offerings or libaments ioyned lightly to every Sacrifice, yet it was enough to eate only of one kind, for to be partaker of the whole.

62 If you shal fee) Our Sauiour feemeth to infinuate, that fuch as beleeue not his words touching the Holy Sacrament, and thinke it impossible for him to giue his Body to be eaten in fo many places at once, being yet in earth, should be much more fcandalized & tepted after they faw or knew him to be ascended into Heauen. Which is proued true in the Capharnaites of this time. Whose principal reason against Christs presence in the Sacrament is, that he is ascended into Heauen: yea, who are so bold as to expound this same sentence for themselves thus, It is not this body or flesh which I wil giue you, for that I wil carie with me to Heauen. Whereby if they meant only that the condition and qualities of his body in Heauen should be other then in the Sacrament, it were tolerable: for S. Augustin speaketh sometime in that sense. But to deny the substance of the body to be the same, that is wicked.

63 The flesh profiteth nothing) If this fpeach were fpoken in the fenfe of the Sacramentaries, it would take away Chrifts Incarnation, manhood, & death, no leffe then his corporal prefence in the Sacrament. For if his flesh were not profitable, al thefe things were vaine. Therfore Christ denieth not his owne flesh to be profitable, but that their groffe and carnal conceiuing of his words, of his flesh, & of the manner of eating the fame, was vnprofitable: which is plaine by the fentence following where he warneth them, that his words be fpirit and life, of high Myftical meaning, and not vulgarly & grofly to be taken, as they tooke them. And it is the vfe of the Scripture to cal mans natural fenfe, reafon, and carnal refifting or not reaching fupernatural truths, flesh or bloud, as, Flesh and bloud reuealed not this to thee &c. Mat. 16.

This carnalitie then of theirs, ftood in two points fpecially: firft, that they imagined that he would kil himfelf, & cut & mangle his flesh into parts, & fo giue it them raw or roft to be eaten among them. Which could not be meant, faith S. Augustin: for that had conteined an heinous and barbarous fact; and therfore they might & should have been affured, that he would command no fuch thing: but some other sweet sense to be of his hard, mystical, or figurative words, & to be fulfilled in a Sacrament, mysterie, and a maruelous divine fort, otherwife then they could comprehend. Secondly, they did erre touching his flesh, in that they tooke it to be flesh of a mere man, & of a dead man also, when it should come to be eaten: of which kind of flesh Chrift here pronounceth, that it profiteth nothing. Whereupon S. Cyril faith: This body is not of Peter or Paul or any other like, but of Chrift Iesus who is the life itself: and therfore this Body giveth life, the very fulnes of the Diuinitie dwelling in it. And the holy Councel of Ephefus in the 11. Anathematisme expounded also by the faid S. Cyril: The Eucharift is not the body of any common person (for the flesh of a common man could not quicken) but of the WORD itself. But the Heretike Neftorius diffolueth the vertue of this mysterie, holding mans flesh only to be in the Eucharift. Thus there. And S. Ignatius cited of Theodorete, and many other Fathers have the like. Whereby we may fee that it commeth of the Diuinitie & Spirit (without which Chrifts flesh can not be) that this Sacrament giueth life.

Chrift infinuateth that faithles men shal not beleeue his prefence in the B. Sacrament, becaufe he is afcended.

64 That believe not) It is lacke of faith, you fee here, that caufeth men to fpurne againft this high truth of the Sacrament: as also it may be learned here, that it is the great & merciful guift of God that Catholike men doe againft their fenfes & carnal reafons, beleeue & fubmit themselues to the humble acknowledging of this Myfterie: laftly, that it may well by Chrifts infinuation of Iudas, be gathered, that he fpecially fourned against our Maisters speaches of the holy Sacrament.

66 Went back) It can be no maruel to vs now that fo many reuolt from the Church, by offense or fcandal vniuftly taken at Chrifts body and bloud in the Sacrament: feeing many of his Disciples that faw his wonderful life, doctrine, and miracles, forfooke Chrift himfelf, vpon the fpeach & promife of the fame Sacrament. For the mysterie of it is so supernatural & diuine in itfelf, and withal fo low and base for our sakes, by the shew of the formes of these terrene elements vnder which it is, and we eate it; that the vnfaithful and infirme doe fo ftumble at Chrift in the Sacrament, as the Iewes & Gentils did at Chrift in his humanitie. For, the causes of contradictions of the incarnation & Transfubstantiation be like. And it may be verily deemed, that whofoeuer now can not believe the Sacrament to be Chrift, because it is vnder the formes of bread and wine, and is eaten and drunken, would not then have believed that Chrift had been God, because he was in the shape of man, and crucified. To conclude, it was not a figure nor a mysterie of bare bread and wine, nor any Metaphorical or Allegorical fpeach, that could make fuch a troup of his Disciples reuolt at once. When he said he was a doore, a vine, a way, a Paftour, and fuch like (vnto which kind of fpeaches the Protestants ridiculously resemble the words of the holy Sacrament) who was fo mad to miftake him, or to forfake him for the

For the Apoftles at the leaft would have plucked them by the fleeues, and faid: Goe not away my Mafters, he fpeaketh parables. The cause therfore was their incredulitie, and the height of the Mysterie, for that they neither knew the meanes how it might be present, nor would belieue that he was able to giue his flesh to be eaten in many places. And even such is the vnbeleese of the Heretikes about this matter at this day.

Cypr. ep. 55. nu. 3.

68 Peter answered) Peter answereth for the Twelue, not knowing that Iudas in hart was already naught, and beleeued not Chrifts former words touching the B. Sacrament, but was to reuolt afterward as the other. Wherein as Peter beareth the person of the Church & al Catholike men, that for no difficulty of his word, nor for any reuclt (be it neuer fo general) of Schifmatikes, Heretikes, or Apostates, either for this Sacrament or any other Article, wil euer forfake Chrift: So Iudas was the chiefeft fuborner, maintayner, & father of this herefie againft the real prefence of Chrifts bodie and bloud in the B. Sacrament, and of the reuolt from him for the fame: as S. Augustin teacheth in enarratione Pfal. 34. ad ver. 22. & Pfal. 35. ad ver. 7. declaring withal that this was the first herefie against Christs doctrine, and worthily commending S. Peter for his humble obedience, in receiuing Chrifts fpeach, and firmly beleeuing his words to be true and good, which he did not vet vnderftand. By whofe example therfore when company draweth vs to reuolt, let vs fay thus: Lord, whither or to whom shal we goe, when we have forfaken thee? to Caluin, Luther, or fuch, and forfake thee and thy Church with the vnfaithful multitude? No, thou haft the words of life, and we believe thee, and thy Church wil not nor can not beguile vs. Thou haft (faith the fame S. Augustine) life everlasting in the ministration of thy body and bloud. And a litle after: Thou art life euerlasting itself, and thou giuest not in thy slesh and bloud but that which thy felf art.

Tract. 27. in Euang. Io.

As S. Peter beareth the perfon of al beleeuing Catholikes: fo Iudas of al vnbeleeuing Heretikes. He being the firft Arch-heretike; and this, againft the B. Sacrament, the firft herefie.
