Chapter 7

The Mafters of Hierufalem comming fo farre to carpe him 6. he chargeth with traditions, partly friuolous, 9. partly also contrarie to Gods commandements. 14. And to the People he yealdeth the reason of that which they carped, 17. and agayne to his Disciples, shewing the ground of the Iewish washing (to wit, that meats otherwise defile the soule) to be false. 24. But by and by among the Gentils, in a woman he findeth wonderful faith, vpon her therfore he bestoweth the crumme that she asked, 31. returning (because the time of the Gentils was not yet come) to the Iewes with the lose: 32. where he sheweth his compassion towards mankind so dease & dumme, 36. and of the People is highly magnified.

Mt. 15, 1.

nd there affemble togeather vnto him the Pharifees and certaine of the Scribes, comming from Hierufalem. ² And when they had feen certaine of his Difciples eate bread with ⁴comon hãds, that is, not washed, they blamed them. ³ For the Pharifees, and all the Iewes, vnles they often wash their hands, eate not, holding the tradition of the Ancients: ⁴ And from the market, vnles they be washed, they eate not: and many other things there be that were deliuered vnto them to observe, the washing of cups and cruses, and of brafen veffels & beds. ⁵ And the Pharifees and Scribes asked him: Why doe not thy Difciples walke according to the tradition of the Ancients, but they eate bread with common hands? ⁶ But he answering, faid to them: Wel did Efay Prophecie of your Hypocrites, as it is written: This People honoureth me a) with their lips, but their hart is farre from me. ⁷ And in vaine doe they worship me, teaching doctrines *precepts of men. ⁷ For leauing the comandement of God, you hold the traditions of men, the washings of cruses and cups: & many other things you doe like to thefe. 8 And he faid

Honour thy father and thy mother; and, He that shal curfe father or mother, dying let him dye. ¹⁰ But you fay: If a man fay to father or mother, Corban (which is a *guift) whatfoeuer proceedeth from me, fhal profit thee: ¹¹ And further you fuffer him not to doe ought for his father or mother, ¹² defeating the Word of God for your owne tradition which you haue giuen forth. And many other things of this fort you doe.

13 And calling againe the multitude vnto him, he faid to the: Heare me al you, and vnderstand. 14 Nothing is without a man entring into him, that can defile him. But the things that proceed from a man those are they that make a man a)common. 15 If any man haue eares to heare, let him heare. ¹⁶ And when he was entred into the house from the multitude, his Disciples asked him the parable. ¹⁷ And he faith to them: So are you also vnskilful? Vnderstand you not that euery thing from without, entring into a man, can not make him common: 18 because it entreth not into his hart, but goeth into the belly, and is caft out into the prive, purging al the meates? ¹⁹ But he faid that the things which come forth from a man, they make a man common. ²⁰ For from within out of the hart of men proceed euil cogitations, aduouteries, fornications, murders, ²¹ thefts, auarices, wickedneffe, guile, impudicities, an euil eye, blafphemie, pride, foolifhnes. 22 Al thefe euils proceed from within, and make a man common.

Mt. 15, 21.

²³ And rifing from thence he went into the coafts of Tyre and Sidon: and entring into a house, he would that no man should know, and he could not be hid. ²⁴ For a woman immediatly as she heard of him, whose daughter had an vncleane Spirit, entred in, and fel downe at his feet. ²⁵ For the woman was a Gentile, a Syrophænician borne. And she befought him that he would cast forth the Diuel out of her daughter. ²⁶ Who said to her: Suffer first the children to be filled. For it is not good to take the childrens bread, and caft it to the dogs. ²⁷ But fhe answered, and faid to him: Yea Lord; for the whelpes also eate vnder the table of the crummes of the children. ²⁸ And he faid to her: For this faying goe thy way, the Diuel is gone out of thy daughter. ²⁹ And when she was departed into her house, she found the maid lying vpon the bed, and the Diuel gone out.

of Tyre and Sidon, he came

³⁰ And againe going out of the coafts 'of Tyre, he came by Sidon' to the fea of Galilee through the middes of the coafts of Decapolis. 31 And they bring to him one deafe and dumme; and they befought him that he would impose his hand vpon him. ³² And taking him from the multitude apart, he put his fingers into his eares, and •fpitting, touched his tongue; ³³ And looking vp vnto Heauen, he groned, and faid to him: *Ephpheta, which is, Be thou opened. 34 And immediatly his eares were opened, and the ftring of his tongue was loofed, and he fpake right. ³⁵ And he commanded them not tel any body. But how much he commanded them, fo much the more a great deale did they publish it. ³⁶ And fo much the more did they wonder, faying: He hath done al things wel; he hath made both the deafe to heare, and the dumme to fpeake.

Annotations

2 Common) Common and vncleane is al one. For the Iewes were commanded by the Law to eate certaine kinds of meats only, and not al indifferently: and because these were separated from other meats, and as it were fanctified to their vse, they called the other common and profane: and because the Law calleth those cleane and these vncleane, thereof it is, that vncleane and common is al one, as in this Chapter often, and Act. 10.

7 Precepts of men) Mens ordinances which be repugnant to Gods commandements, be here condemned as all observations not edifying nor profitable to the fulfilling of Gods commandements, be vaine and superfluous: as many observations of the Pharifees were then, and the like traditions of Heretikes be now, for howsoeuer they bragge of Scriptures, all their manner of administration and ministerie is their owne tradition and invention without all Scripture and warrant of Gods word. But the traditions of the Apostles & Ancients, and all the precepts of holy

10 Guift) To giue to the Church or Altar is not forbidden, but the forfaking of a mans parents in their necessitie, pretending or excusing the matter vpon his giuing that which should relieue them, to God or the Altar, that is impious and vnnatural. And these Pharises teaching children so to neglect their duties to their parents, did wickedly.

Dutie to parents.

14 Nothing entring into a man) As these wordes of our Sauiour doe not import, that the Iewes then might have eaten of those meates which God forbade them: no more doe they now, that we Christians may eate of meates which the Church forbiddeth vs. And yet both then and now al meates are cleane, and nothing entring into a man, defileth a man. For neither they then, nor we now abstaine, for that any meates are of their nature abominable, or defile the eaters, but they for fignification, we for obedience and chastisement of our bodies.

Abstinence from certaine meats.

32 Spitting) Not only by Chrifts word and wil, but also by ceremonie and by application of external creatures which be holy, miracles are wrought; as by Chrifts spittle, which was not part of his Person, being a superfluity of his body, but yet most holy Theophyl. in 7. Marci.

33 Ephphetha) The Church doth most godly imitate and vse these very wordes and ceremonies of our Sauiour in the Exorcismes before Baptisme, to the healing of their soules that are to be baptized, as Christ here healed the bodily infirmitie, and the disease of the soule togeather.
