

Chapter 20

To shew how through Gods grace the Iewes shal be ouer-runne of the Gentils, although they beginne after, he bringeth a parable of men working fooner and later in the vinyard, but the later rewarded in the end euen as the firft. 17. He reuealeth more to his Difciples touching his pafsion: 20. Bidding the ambitious two fuiters to thinke rather of suffering with him: 24. And teaching vs (in the rest of his Difciples) not to ge greeued at our Ecclesiastical Superiours, confidering they are (as he was himself) to toile for our saluation. 29. Then going out of Iericho, he giueth fight vnto two blind.

The Kingdom of Heauen is like to a man that is an Houfholder which went forth early ¹in the morning to hire workemen into his vineyard. ² And hauing made couenant with the workemen for a penie a day, he fent them into his vinyard. ³ And going forth about the third houre, he faw other ftāding in the market place idle, ⁴ and he faid to them: Goe you also into the vineyard, and that which fhall be iuft, I wil giue you. ⁵ And they went their way. And againe he went forth about the fixt & the ninth houre: and did likewise. ⁶ But about the eleuenth houre he went forth and found other ftanding, & he faith to them: What ftand you here al the day idle? ⁷ They fay to him: Befcaufe no man hath hired vs. He faith to them: Goe you also into the vineyard.

⁸ And when euening was come, the Lord of the vineyard faith to his Bailife: Cal the workmen, and pay them their hire, beginning from the laft euen to the firft. ⁹ Therefore when they were come that came about the eleuenth houre, they receaued euerie one ¹a penie. ¹⁰ But when the firft also came, they thought that they fhould receaue more: and they also receaued euerie one a penie.

¹⁷ And IESVS going vp to Hierufalem, tooke the twelue Difciples secretly, and faid to them: ¹⁸ Behold we goe vp to Hierufalem, and the Sonne of man fhall be deliuered to the chiefe Priests and to the Scribes, and they fhall condemne him to death, ¹⁹ and fhall deliuer him to the Gentils to be mocked, and fcourged, and crucified, and the third day he fhall rife againe.

²⁰ Then came to him the mother of the fonnes of Zebedee with her fonnes, adoring and defiring fome thing of him. ²¹ Who faid to her: What wilt thou? She faith to him: Say that thefe my two fonnes may fit, one at thy right hand, & one at thy left hand in the Kingdō. ²² And IESVS anfwering, faid: You know not what you defire. Can you drinke of the cup that I fhall drinke of? They fay to him: We can. ²³ He faith to them: My cup indeed you fhall drinke of: but to fit at my right hand and left, is not mine to giue to you, but [♠]to whom it is prepared of my Father.

²⁴ And the ten hearing it, were difpleafed at the two brethren. ²⁵ And IESVS calleth them vnto him, and faid: You know that the Princes of the Gentils ^{b)}ouerrule them: and they that are the greater, exercife power againft them. ²⁶ It fhall not be fo among you, but whofoeuer wil be the greater among you, let him be your minifter: ²⁷ And he that wil be firft among you, fhall be your feruant. ²⁸ Euen ^aas the Sonne of man is not come to be miniftred vnto, but to minifter, and to giue his life a redemption for many.

²⁹ And when they went out from Iericho, a great multitude folowed him. ³⁰ And behold two blind men fitting by the way fide, heard that IESVS paffed by, and they cried out faying: Lord, haue mercie vpon vs, Sonne of Daud. ³¹ And the multitude rebuked them that they fhould hold their peace. But they cried out the more, faying: Lord, haue mercie vpon vs, Sonne of Daud. ³² And IESVS ftood, and called them, and faid: What wil ye that I doe to you? ³³ They fay to him: Lord, that our eyes may be opened. ³⁴ And IESVS hauing compaffion on them, ^a)touched their eyes. And immediatly they faw, and folowed him.

ANNOTATIONS

1 In the morning) God calleth fome in the morning, that is, in the beginning of the world, as Abel, Enoch, Noe, and other the iuft and faithful of the firft Age; at the third houre, Abraham, Ifaac, and Iacob, and the reft of their Age; at the 6. houre of the day, Moyfes, Aaron, and the reft; at the 9. houre, the Prophets; at the eleuenth, that is, at the later end of the world, the Chriftian Nations. Aug. de verb. Domini fer. 59. Briefly, this calling at diuerfe houres fignifieth the calling of the Iewes from time to time in the firft Ages of the world, and of the Gentils in the later Age thereof. It fignifieth alfo that God calleth countries to the faith fome fooner, fome later; and particular men to be his feruants, fome yonger, fome elder, of diuerfe ages.

9 Penie) The penie promifed to al, was life euerlafting, which is common to al that fhall be faued. But in the fame life there be degrees of glorie, as betwixt ftarre and ftarre in the element. Aug. li. de virginis. c. 26.

16 Few elect) Thofe are elect which defpifed not their caller, but folowed and beleeued him; for men beleeue not but of their owne free wil. Aug. li. 1. ad Simplic. q. 2.

^a Our Sauour who alwaies could, and often did cure the difeafed, by his only wil, or word, here gaue fight to thefe blind men, by touching their eyes with his holie hand.

23 To whom it is prepared) The Kingdom of Heauen is prepared for them that are worthie of it and deserue it by their wel doing; as in holy Scripture it is very often: That God wil repay euery man according to his workes. And, Come ye blessed, possesse the Kingdom prepared for you. Why? Because I was hungrie, and you gaue me meate; thirtie, and you gaue me drinke &c. Therefore doth Chrif say here: It is not mine to giue. Because he is iust and wil not giue it to euerie man without respect of their deserts; yea nor alike to euerie one, but diuerfly according to greater or lesser merits; as here S. Chryfofto. maketh it plaine, when our Sauour telleth them, that although they suffer martyrdom for his sake, yet he hath not to giue thẽ the two cheefe places. See S. Hier. vpon this place, and li. 2. adu. Iouin. c. 15. This also is a leffon for them that haue to bestow Ecclesiastical benefices, that they haue no carnal respect to kindred &c. but to the worthines of the persons.

28 As the Sonne of man) Chrif himself as he was the Sonne of man, was their and our Superiour, and Lord & Maister, notwithstanding his humilitie, and therefore it is pride and haughtines which is forbidden, and not Superioritie or Lordship, as some Heretikes would haue it.
