

Chapter 25

Continuing his Sermon, he bringeth two parables, of ten Virgins, and of Talents, to shew how it shal be in Domefday with the Faithful that prepare, and that prepare not them felues. 31. Then also without parables he sheweth that such Faithful as doe workes of mercy, shal haue for them life euerlasting: and such as doe not, euerlasting damnation.

Then shal the Kingdom of Heauen be like to ten ^aVirgins, which taking their ^alamps went forth to meet the Bridegrome and the Bride. ² And fwe of them were foolifh, and fwe wife. ³ But the fwe foolifh, hauing taken their lamps, did not take ^aoile with them: ⁴ but the wife did take oile in their veffels with the lamps. ⁵ And the Bridegrome tarying long they flumbered al and flept. ⁶ And at midnight there was a clamour made: Behold the Bridegrome commeth, goe ye forth to meet him. ⁷ Then arofe al thofe Virgins, and they trimmed their lamps. ⁸ And the foolifh faid to the wofe: Giue vs of ^ayour oile, becaufe our lamps are going out. ⁹ The wife answered, faying: Left peradventure there fuffice not for vs and you, goe rather to them that fel, and buy for your felues. ¹⁰ And whiles they went to buy, the Bridegrome was come: and they that were ready, entred with him to the mariage, and the gate was flut. ¹¹ But laft of al come also the other Virgins faying: Lord, Lord, open to vs. ¹² But he answering faid: Amen I fay to you, I know you not. ¹³ Watch ye therefore, becaufe you know not the day nor the houre.

Lu. 10, 12.

¹⁴ For euen as a man going into a ftrange countrie, called his feruants, and deliuered them his goods. ¹⁵ And to one he gaue fwe talents, and to an other two, and to an other one, to eury one according to his proper facultie: and immediatly he tooke his iourney. ¹⁶ And he that had receaued the fiue talents, went his way, and occupied with the fame, and gained other fiue. ¹⁷ Likewise alfo he that had receaued the two, gained other two. ¹⁸ But he that had receaued the one, going his way digged into the earth, and hid his Lords money. ¹⁹ But after much time the Lord of thofe feruāts cōmeth, & made acount with thē. ²⁰ And there came he that had receaued the fiue talents, & offred other fiue talēts, faying: Lord fiue talēts thou didft deliuer me, behold ^a)I haue gained other fiue besides. ²¹ His Lord faid vnto him: Wel-fare thee good & faithful feruant, becaufe thou haft been faithful ouer a few things I wil place thee ouer many things: enter into the ioy of thy Lord. ²² And there came alfo he that had receaued the two talents, & faid: Lord two talents thou didft deliuer me: behold I haue gained other two. ²³ His Lord faid to him: Wel-fare thee good & faithful feruāt: becaufe thou haft been faithful ouer a few things, I wil place thee ouer many things, enter into the ioy of thy Lord. ²⁴ And he alfo that had receaued the one talēt, came forth, and faid: Lord, I know that thou art a hard man; thou reapeft where thou didft not fow, and gathereft where thou ftrawed not: ²⁵ and being afraid I went, and hid thy talent in the earth: behold here thou haft that which thine is. ²⁶ And his Lord anfwering, faid to him: ^b)Naughtie and floughful feruant, thou didft know that I reape where I fow not, & gather where I ftrawed not: ²⁷ thou oughteft therefore to haue committed my money to the bankers, and comming I might haue receaued mine owne [♣]with vfurie. ²⁸ Take ye away therefore the talent from him, and giue it him that hath ten talents. ²⁹ For to euery one that hath fhāl be giuen, and he fhāl abound: but from him that hath not, [♣]that alfo which he feemeth to haue, fhāl be taken away from him. ³⁰ And the vnprofitable feruant caft ye out into the vtter darknes. There fhāl be weeping and gnafhing of teeth.

Luc. 8, 18.

^a Free wil with Gods grace doth merit.

^b A terrible example for al fuch as doe not employ the very leaft giuft of God, to his glorie.

³¹ And when the Sonne of man shal come in his maiestie, and al the Angels with him, then shal he sit vpon the feat of his maiestie: ³² and al Nations shal be gathered together before him, and he shal [♠]separate them one from an other, as the paster separeteth the sheep from the goats: ³³ and shal set the sheep at his right hand, but the goats at his left. ³⁴ Then shal the King say to them that shal be at his right hand: [♠]Come ye Bleffed of my Father, possesse you the Kingdom ^a)prepared for you from the foundation of the world. ³⁵ For I was an hungred, and [♠]you gaue me to eate: I was a thirft, and you gaue me to drinke. ³⁶ I was a stranger, and you tooke me in: naked, and you couered me: sick, and you visited me. I was in prison, and you came to me. ³⁷ Then shal the iust answer him, saying: Lord, when did we see thee an hungred, and fed thee, a thirft, and gaue thee drinke? ³⁸ and when did we see thee a stranger, and tooke thee in? or naked, and couered thee? ³⁹ or when did we see thee sick or in prison, and came to thee? ⁴⁰ And the King answering, shal say to them: Amen I say to you, as long as you did it to one of these my least brethren, you did it to me. ⁴¹ Then he shal say to them also that shal be at his left hand: Get ye away from me you cursed into fire euerlasting, which was prepared for the Diuel and his Angels. ⁴² For I was an hungred, & you [♠]gaue me not to eat; I was a thirft, & you gaue me not to drinke. ⁴³ I was a stranger, and you tooke me not in: naked, and you couered me not: sick, & in prison, and you did not visit me. ⁴⁴ Then they also shal answer him, saying: Lord, when did we see thee an hungred, or a thirft, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, & did not minister to thee? ⁴⁵ Then he shal answer them, saying: Amen I say to you, as long as you did it not to one of these lesser, neither did you it to me. ⁴⁶ And these shal goe into punishment euerlasting: but the iust, into life euerlasting.

^a This Kingdō then is prepared for those only that doe good works: as Christ also signifieth els where, saying that it is not in his power to giue it otherwise. See the annot. c. 20, 23.

ANNOTATIONS

1 Virgins) These Virgins five wife, and five foolish, signify that in the Church militant there be good and bad: which bad shall be shut out at the later day, although they have lamps (that is faith) as the other, because their lamps are out: that is, their faith is dead without charity and good works to lighten them. Greg. ho. 12.

Good works
necessarie.

1 Lamps) These lamps lighted, be good works, namely of mercy, and the laudable conversation which shineth before men. Aug. ep. 120. c. 23.

3 oyle) This oyle is the right inward intention directing our works to Gods glorie, and not to the praise of our felues in the sight of men. Aug. ep. 120. c. 33.

Right intētiō.

27 With vfurie) Vfurie is here taken for the lawful gaine that a man getteth by well employing his goods. When God giueth vs any talent or talents, he looketh for vfurie, that is, for spiritual increase of the fame by our diligence and industrie.

29 That which he seemeth to haue) He is said to haue Gods gifts, that vseth them, and to such an one God wil increase his gifts. He that vseth them not, seemeth to haue, rather then hath them, and from him God wil withdraw that which before he gaue.

We must vse Gods gifts.

32 Separate) Loe here is the separation; for in the Church militant they liued both together. As for Heretikes, they went out of the Church before, and separated them felues, and therefore are not to be separated here, as being iudged already.

Good and bad in the Church.

34 Come ye. 41. Get ye away) It is no incongruities that God should say: Goe into euerlasting fire, to them that by their free wil haue repelled his mercie; and to the other: Come ye Blessed of my Father, take the Kingdom prepared for you, that by their free wil haue receaued faith, and confessed their finnes, and done penance. Aug. li. 2. act cum Fel. Manich. c. 8.

Heauen is the reward of good workes, and Hel of the contrarie.

35 You gaue me) Hereby we see how much almes-deeds and al works of mercy preuaile towards life euerlasting, and to blot out former finnes. Aug. in Ps. 49.

42 Gaue me not) He chargeth them not here that they beleueed not, but that they did not good works. For such did beleuee but they cared not for good works, as though by dead faith they might haue come to Heauen. Aug. de fid. & op. c. 15. & Dulcit. q. 2. to 4.
