

Chapter 11

God biddeth Moyfes caufe the people of Ifrael to borow filuer and gold veffels of the Ægyptians. 4. Fortelleth one other plague, the death of the firft-borne, 9. and that Pharao wil ftill be obdurate.

And our Lord faid to Moyfes: Yet with one plague more wil I touch Pharao & Ægypt, and after this he fhall difmiffe you, and compel you to goe forth. ² Thou shalt fay therefore to al the people that euerie man aske of his frend, & euerie woman of her neighbour veffels of filuer, & of gold. ³ And the Lord wil geue grace to his people in the fight of the Ægyptians. And Moyfes was a very great man in the Land of Ægypt, in the fight of Pharaoes feruantes, & of al the people. ⁴ And he faid: This faith our Lord: At midnight I wil enter into Ægypt: ⁵ and euerie firft-begotten in the Land of the Ægyptians fhall dye, from the firft-begotten of Pharao who fitteth in his throne, euen to the firft-begotten of the handmaid that is at the mil, & al the firft-begotten of beaftes. ⁶ And there shall be a great crie in the whole Land of Ægypt, fuch as neither hath bene before, nor fhall be afterward. ⁷ But with al the children of Ifrael there shall not a dogge mutter, from man euen to beaft: that you may know with how great a miracle our Lord doth diuide the Ægyptians & Ifrael. ⁸ And al thefe thy feruantes shall come downe to me, and shall adore me, faying: Goe forth thou, & al the people that is vnder thee: after this we shall goe forth. ⁹ And he departed from Pharao exceeding angrie. And our Lord faid to Moyfes: Pharao wil not heare you that manie fignes may be done in the Land of Ægypt. ¹⁰ And Moyfes and Aaron did al the wonders that are written, before Pharao. And our Lord ^ahardned Pharaoes hart, neither did he difmiffe the children of Ifrael out of his Land.

The 10. plague.
Death of the firftborne in men & beaftes of the Ægyptians.

^a As before. c. 7. v. 3. c. 9. v. 16. c. 10. v. 1.