*Al the ornamentes of Aaron and his fonnnes are made,
31. and the whole vvorke of the Tabernacle is perfited.*

Moreouer of hyacinth and purple, fcarlet and filke he made the veftures, that Aaron should weare when he miniftred in the holie places, as our Lord commanded Moyfes. ² He made therefore an Ephod of gold, hyacinth, and purple, and fcarlet twife died, and twifted filke, ³ with embrodered worke, and he did cut thinne plates of gold, and drew them fmal into threedes, that they might be twifted with the woufe of the former colours, ⁴ and two edges coupled one to the other in the toppe on either fide, ⁵ and a bawdrike of the fame colours, as our Lord had commanded Moyfes. ⁶ He prepared alfo two Onyx ftones, faft fette and clofed in gold, and grauen by the art of a lapidarie, with the names of the children of Ifrael: ⁷ and he fet them in the fides of the Ephod for a moniment of the children of Ifrael, as our Lord had commanded Moyfes. ⁸ He made alfo a Rationale with embrodered worke according to the worke of the Ephod, of gold, hyacinth, purple, and fcarlet twife died, and twifted filke: ⁹ foure fquare, double, of the meafure of a palme. ¹⁰ And he fet foure rewes of precious ftones. In the firft rewe was fardius, topazius, an emeraud. ¹¹ In the fecond, a carbuncle, a faphire, and a iafper. ¹² In the third, a ligurius, an achates, and an amethift. ¹³ In the fourth a chryfolith, an onyx, and beryllus, compaffed and enclosed in gold by their rewes. ¹⁴ And the twelue ftones them felues, were grauen with the names of the twelue tribes of Ifrael, euerie one with his feveral name. ¹⁵ They made alfo in the rationale litle cheynes linked one to an other of the pureft gold, ¹⁶ and two hookes, and as manie ringes of gold. Moreouer the ringes they fet on either fide of the Rationale, ¹⁷ on the which the two golden cheynes should hang, which they put into the hookes, that ftoode out in the corners of the Ephod. ¹⁸ Thefe both before and behind did fo agree with them felues, that the Ephod and the

Rationale might be knit one to the other, ¹⁹ tyed to the bawdrike and with ringes ftrongly coupled, which a lace of hyacinth ioyned, left they should flagge loofely, and be moued one from the other, as our Lord commanded Moyfes. ²⁰ They made alfo the tunike of the Ephod al of hyacinth, ²¹ and a hole for the head in the vpper part againft the middes, and the border of the hole round about wouen: ²² and beneth at the feete pomegranates of hyacinth, purple, fcarlet, and twifted filke: ²³ and litle belles of the pureft gold, which they did put between the pomegranates in the vtmofst part of the tunike round about: ²⁴ to witte, a bel of gold, and a pomegranate, wherwith the high prieft went adorned, when he executed his minifterie, as our Lord had commanded Moyfes. ²⁵ They made alfo filken tunikes with wouen worke for Aaron and his fonnes: ²⁶ and mitres with their litle crownes of filke: ²⁷ linnen breeches alfo, of fine line: ²⁸ and a girdle of twifted filke, hyacinth, purple, & fcarlet twife died, with the art of embrodering, as our Lord had commanded Moyfes. ²⁹ They made alfo the plate of ^afacred veneration of moft pure gold, and they wrote in it with the worke of a lapidarie: The Holie of our Lord: ³⁰ and they tyed it to the mitre with a lace of hyacinth, as our Lord had commanded Moyfes. ³¹ Therefore al the worke of the tabernacle & of the roofe of teftimonie was perfited: and the children of Ifrael did al thinges which our Lord had commanded Moyfes. ³² And they offered the tabernacle and the roofe and the whole furniture, ringes, bordes, barres, pillers and their feete, ³³ the couer of rammes skinned redde, and the other couer of ianthin skinned, ³⁴ the veile, the arke, the barres, the propitiatorie, ³⁵ the table with the veffel therof and the loaves of propofition: ³⁶ the candlefticke, the lampes, and the furniture of them with the oyle: ³⁷ the altar of gold, and the ointment, and the incenfe of fpices: ³⁸ and
