

Chapter 9

For mariages and other affociation which the Iewes had with Gentiles, Efdras lamenteth, 5. and confesing the peoples iniquitie, prayeth God to conferue them from vtter destruction.

And after these thinges were accomplished, the princes came to me, saying: The people of Ifrael, and the Priests and Leuites ^aare not seperated from the people of the landes, and from the abominations of them, to witte, of the Chananeite, and Hetheite, and Pherezeite, and Iebufeite, and of the Ammonites, and Moabites, and the Ægyptians, and Amorrhaites. ² For they haue taken of their daughters to them and to their fennes, and haue mingled the holie feede with the people of the landes. The hand also of the princes and magistrates hath bene first in this transgression. ³ And when I had heard this word, I rent my cloke and my coate, and plucked of the heares of my head and bearde, and fate mourning. ⁴ And there affembled to me al that feared the God of Ifrael, for the transgression of them, that were come from the captiuitie, and I fate forowful, vntil the euening sacrifice. ⁵ And at the euening sacrifice I rofe out of my affliction, and my cloke and coate being rent I fell vpon my knees, and spred forth my hands to our Lord my God, ⁶ and said: My God I am confounded and afhamed to lifte vp my face to thee: becaufe our iniquities are multiplied ouer our head, and our finnes haue growen euen vnto heauen, ⁷ from the dayes of our fathers: yea and we our felues also haue finned greuoufly vnto this day, and in our iniquities haue we bene deliuered our felues, and our Kinges, and our Priestes into the hand of the kinges of the landes, and into the fword, and into captiuitie, and into fpoyle, and into confufion of countenance, as alfo at this day. ⁸ And now as it were a litle, and for a moment was our prayer made before the Lord our God, that a remnant might be left vs, and ^{a)}a nayle might be geuen vs in his holie place, and that our God would illuminate our eies, and would geue vs a litle life in our bondage. ⁹ Because we are bondmen, and in our bondage our God did not forfake vs, & he inclined mercie vpon vs before the king of the Perfians, to geue vs life, and to aduance the houfe of our God, and to build the defolations therof and to geue vs a hedge in Iuda and Ierufalem. ¹⁰ And now what fhall we fay, ô our God, after thefe thinges? because we haue forfaken thy cōmandmēts, ¹¹ which thou haft cōmanded in the hand of thy feruantes the prophetes, faying: The land, to the which you enter to poffeffe it, is an vnckleane land, according to the vnckleanneffe of peoples, and of other landes, by the abominations of them that haue filled it from mouth vnto mouth in their coinquination. ¹² Now therefore geue not your daughters to their fonnes, and their daughters take not for your fonnes, and doe ye not feeke their peace, and their profperity for euer: that you may be ftrengthened, and may eate the goodes that are of the land, and may haue your children heyres for euer. ¹³ And after al thinges that come vpon vs in our moft wicked workes, and our moft great finne, because thou our God haft deliuered vs from our iniquitie, and haft geuen vs health as it is at this day, ¹⁴ that we fhall not turne away, and make fruftrate thy commandementes, neither fhould ioyne matrimonies with the peoples of thefe abominations Why art thou angrie with vs vnto vtter deftruction, not to leaue vs a remnant vnto faluation? ¹⁵ Lord God of Ifrael thou art iuft: because we are leift, which fhould be faued as at this day. Behold we
