And Oza and his brother did driue the wayne. ⁸ Moreouer Daud, and al Ifrael playd before our Lord with al their might in fongues, and on harpes, and pfalteries, and timbrels, and cymbals, and trumpettes. ⁹ And when they were come to the Floore of Chidon, Oza ftretched forth his hand, to hold vp the Arke: for the oxe being wantone had made it leane a litle a fide. ¹⁰ Our Lord therefore was angrie agaynft Oza, and ftroke him, for that he had touched the Arke: and he died there before our Lord. ¹¹ And Daud was ftrooken fad, becaufe our Lord had diided Oza: and he called that place, the Diuifion of Oza vntil this present day. ¹² And he feared God at that time, faying: How may I bring in the Arke of God vnto me? ¹³ And for this caufe

he brought it not vnto himfelfe, that is, into the citie of Daudid, but turned it away into the houfe of ^{a)}Obededom the ^{b)}Getheite. ¹⁴ Therefore the Arke of God remaind in the houfe of Obededom three monethes: & our Lord bleffed his houfe, and al thinges that he had.

^a Obededom was a Leuite, (c. 15. v. 18.) and therefore more mete to kepe the arke.

^b Called a Getheite becaufe he had dwelt in the towne of Geth.
