

Chapter 21

Dauid finneth in numbring his people, 8. repenteth, and prayeth, yet is punished, many dying of the plague, 15. til God shewing mercie spareth the rest. 16. Dauid accusing himselfe, and excusing the people is commanded by the Angel to offer sacrifice, which he (22. bying ground for an altar) 26. performeth.

2. Reg. 24.

But <sup>a)</sup>Satan rofe agaynft Ifrael: and moued Dauid to number Ifrael. <sup>2</sup> And Dauid fayd to Ioab, and to the princes of the people: Goe, and number Ifrael from Berfabee vnto Dan, and bring me the number that I may know. <sup>3</sup> And Ioab, answered: Our Lord increafe his people an hundred fold more then they are: are they not my lord king al thy seruantes? why doth my lord feeke this, which may be reputed for a finne to Ifrael? <sup>4</sup> But the kinges word preuailed more: and Ioab went forth, and went about al Ifrael: and returned to Ierufalem. <sup>5</sup> And he gaue Dauid the number of them, whom he had furueyed: and al the number of Ifrael was found a thoufand thoufand and an hundred thoufand men that drew fword: and of Iuda foure hundred feuentie thoufand men of warre. <sup>6</sup> For Leui and Benjamin he numbred not: becaufe Ioab vnwillingly executed the kings commandement. <sup>7</sup> And that which was commanded difpleafed God: and he froke Ifrael. <sup>8</sup> And Dauid fayd to God: I haue finned exceedingly in that I would doe this: I befech thee take away <sup>b)</sup>the iniquitie of thy feruant, becaufe I haue done foolifhly. <sup>9</sup> And our Lord fpake to Gad the Seer of Dauid, faying: <sup>10</sup> Goe, and fpeake to Dauid, and tel him: Thus fayth our Lord: I geue thee the choyfe of three thinges, choofe one which thou wilt, and I wil doe it to thee. <sup>11</sup> And when Gad was come to Dauid, he fayd to him: Thus fayth our Lord: Choofe which thou wilt: <sup>12</sup> either three yeares famine:

<sup>b</sup> King Dauid was not without faith, nor hope, and yet was contaminate with iniquitie, from which he prayed to be deliuered.

or three monethes to flee from thine enemies, and not to be able to escape their fword: or three dayes the fword of our Lord, and peftilence to be in the land, and the Angel of our Lord to kil in al the coftes of Ifrael: now therfore fee what I fhall anfwer him, that fent me. <sup>13</sup> And Daud fayd to Gad: I am on euerie fide in great diftreffe: but it is better, that I fal into the handes of our Lord, becaufe his mercies be manie, then into the handes of men. <sup>14</sup> Our Lord therfore fent the peftilence in Ifrael, and there fel of Ifrael feuentie thoufand men. <sup>15</sup> He fent alfo an Angel into Ierufalem, to ftrike it: and when it was ftriken, our Lord faw, and had compaffion vpon the greateneffe of the euil: and commanded the Angel, that fmote: It is fufficient, now let thy hand ceafe. Moreouer the Angel of our Lord ftoode befide the floore of Ornan the Iebufeite. <sup>16</sup> And Daud lifting vp his eies, faw the Angel of our Lord fstanding between heauen and earth, and a fword drawen in his hand, turned agaynft Ierufalem: & they fel as wel he as the ancientes clothed in heare clothes, flatte on the earth. <sup>17</sup> And Daud fayd to God: Am not I he, that commanded the people to be numbred? It is I that haue finned: it is I that haue done the euil: this flocke what hath it deserued? Lord my God let thy hand be turned I befech thee vpon me, and vpon my fathers houfe: and let not thy people be ftriken. <sup>18</sup> And the Angel of our Lord commanded Gad to tel Daud, that he fhould goe vp, and build an altar to our Lord God in the floore of Ornan the Iebufeite. <sup>19</sup> Daud therfore went vp according to the word of Gad, which he had fpoken to him in the name of our Lord. <sup>20</sup> Moreouer Ornan when he had looked vp, and fene the Angel, and his foure fonnes with him, they hid themfelues: for at that time he threfhed wheat in the floore. <sup>21</sup> Therfore when Daud came to Ornan, Ornan beheld him, & went forth to mete him out of the floore, and adored him flatte on the ground. <sup>22</sup> And Daud fayd to him: Geue me the place of thy floore, that I may build therein an altar to our Lord: fo that thou take as much filuer as it is worth, and the plague may ceafe from the people. <sup>23</sup> And Ornan fayd to Daud: Take it, and let my lord the king doe whatfoeuer pleafeth him: yea the oxen alfo little cartes. I geue for holocaust, and the dreyes for wood, and wheat for facrifice: I wil giue al thinges willingly. <sup>24</sup> And king Daud fayd to him: It fhall not be fo, but I wil geue thee filuer as much as it is worth: for I may not take it from thee, and fo offer to our Lord holocaustes geuen gratis. <sup>25</sup> Daud therfore gaue Ornan for the place, fix hundred ficles of gold of moft iuft weight. <sup>26</sup> And he built there an altar to our Lord: and he offered holocaustes, and pacifiques, and he inuocated our Lord, & he heard him <sup>a</sup>in fyre from heauen vpon the altar of holocauste.

<sup>27</sup> And our Lord commanded the Angel: and he turned his fword into the fcabbard. <sup>28</sup> Daud therfore forthwith, feing that our Lord had heard him in the floore of Ornan the Iebufeite, immolated victimes there. <sup>29</sup> But the tabernacle of our Lord, which Moyfes made in the defert, and the altar of holocaustes, was at that time in the excelfe of Gabaon. <sup>30</sup> And Daud could not goe to the altar to pray God there: for he had bene frighted with exceding feare, feing the fword of the Angel of our Lord.
