

Chapter 13

A wife fonne, is the doctrine of the father: but he that is a fcorner, heareth not when he is rebuked.	Filial feare.
² Of the fruite of his owne mouth man shal be filled with good thinges: but the foule of the preuaricatours is wicked.	Sound doctrine.
³ He that kepeth his mouth, kepeth his foule: but he that is vnaduifed to fpeake shal feelee euils.	Difcretion in fpeach.
⁴ The fluggard wil and wil not: but the foule of them that worke, shal be made fatte.	Conftant endeour.
⁵ The iuft shal deteft a lying word: but the impious confoundeth, and shal be confounded.	Truth in wordes and dedes.
⁶ Iuftice kepeth the way of the innocent: but impietie fupplanteth the finner.	Iuftice.
⁷ There is one as it were with riches wheras he hath nothing: and there is as it were poore, wheras he is in much riches.	True acknowledgement of temporal ftate.
⁸ The redemption of a mans life, his riches: but he that is poore, beareth not reprehenfion.	Mediocritie of riches.
⁹ The light of the iuft maketh glad: but the candle of the impious shal be extinguished.	Sincere confcience.
¹⁰ Among the prowde there are alwayes brawles: but they that doe al thinges with counfel, are ruled by wifdom.	Humilitie.
¹¹ Subftance haftened shal be diminished: but that which by litle and litle is gathered with the hand, shal be multiplied.	Iuft gaine.
¹² Hope that is differred afflicteth the foule: a tree of life the defire of cunning.	Speedie performance of promife.
¹³ Who fo detracteth from any thing, he byndeth himfelfe for the time to come: but he that feareth the precept, shal conuers in peace.	Good reporte.
Guilful foules erre in finnes: the iuft are merciful & haue pitie.	Plaine dealing.
¹⁴ The law of a wife man a fountaine of life, that he may decline from the ruine of death.	Good infruction.

- 15 Good doctrine shal geue grace: in the way of True doctrine.
 contemners a whirlepoole.
- 16 The fubtel man doth al thinges with counfel: Prudence.
 but he that is a foole openeth folie.
- 17 The meffenger of the impious shal fal into euil: Faithful but a faithful legate, is health. meffage.
- 18 Pouertie, and ignominie, to him that forfaketh Defire to lerne.
 discipline: but he that yeldeth to him that rebuketh, shal be glorified.
- 19 Defire if it be accomplished, delighteth the foule: Hate of finne.
 fooles detest them that flee euil thinges.
- 20 He that walketh with the wife, shal be wife: a Conuerfation freind of fooles shal be made like. with the good.
- 21 Euil purfeweth finners, and to the iuft good Iuftice.
 thinges shal be repayed.
- 22 The good man leaueth heyres, fonnes and nephewes Succelfion.
 and the fubftance of the finner is kept for the iuft.
- 23 Much meate in the tilled growndes of the fa- Frugalitie.
 thers: and to others they are gathered without iudge-ment.
- 24 He that fpareth the rod, hateth his childe: but Chastifment.
 he that loueth him doth instantly nurture him.
- 25 The iuft eateth and filleth his foule: but the Contentment of bellie of the impious vnfatiable. ftate.