

Psalme 12

A general prayer of the Church, in tribulation, either temporal or spiritual.

A prayer in tribulation.
The 7. key.

Vnto <sup>a)</sup>the end, the Pfalme of Dauid.

How long Ô Lord wilt thou forget me vnto the end? How long doeft thou turne away thy face from me?

<sup>3</sup> How long shal I put <sup>b)</sup>counfels in my foule, forrow in my hart <sup>c)</sup>by day?

<sup>4</sup> How long shal mine enemies be exalted ouer me?

<sup>5</sup> Regard and heare me Ô Lord my God.

Illuminate mine eies that I fleepe not <sup>d)</sup>in death at any time:

<sup>6</sup> left fometime mineemie fay: I haue preuailed againft him.

They that truble me, wil reioyce if I be moued:
<sup>7</sup> but I haue hoped in thy mercie.

My hart shal reioyce in thy faluation: I wil fing to our Lord which geueth me <sup>e)</sup>good thinges: and I wil fing to the name of our Lord moft high.

---

<sup>a</sup> It more perteyneth to the new Teftament then to the old.

<sup>b</sup> Careful and almoft perplex cogitatiōs by reafon of long perfecution and mans weaknes.

<sup>c</sup> Very often euerie day.

<sup>d</sup> Fal not into mortal finne.

<sup>e</sup> Patience in tribulation, and reward for victory.