

Psalme 60

Faithful people of the whole earth pray, and acknowledge that God mercifully heareth their prayer, 6. expect the eternal kingdom of Chrif, in which they shal praife him for euermore.

A confident prayer for Chrifts Incarnation. The 5. key.

Vnto the end, ^{a)}in hymns to Dauid.

Heare ô God my petition: attend to my praier.
^{b)}From the ends of the earth I haue cried to thee:
 whiles my hart was in anguish, thou ^{c)}didst exalt me on a rocke.

⁴ Thou haft ^{d)}conducted me, because thou art made my hope: a toure of ftrength from the face of the enimie.

⁵ I shal inhabite in ^{e)}thy tabernacle for euer: I shal be protected in the couert of thy winges.

⁶ Because thou my God haft heard my prayer: thou haft giuen inheritance to thofe that feare thy name.

⁷ Thou wilt adde ^{f)}dayes vpon the dayes of the king: his years euen vnto the day of generation and generation.

⁸ He is permanent for euer in the fight of God: his ^{g)}mercie and ^{h)}truth who shal require?

⁹ So ⁱ⁾wil I fay a Pfalme to thy name for euer and euer: that I may render my vowes ^{j)}from day to day.
