The 9. key.

To ^{a)}this Daudid, ^{b)}when his land was reftored agane to him.

Our Lord hath reigned, let the earth reioyce:
let ^{c)}manie Ilands be glad.
^{d)}Cloude, and mift round about him: iuftice, and iudgement ^{e)}the correction of his feat.

³ Fire shal goe before him, and shal inflame his enimies round about.

⁴ His lightninges ^{f)}shined to the round world, the earth fawe, and was moued.

⁵ The mountaines melted as waxe, before the face of our Lord: before the face of our Lord al the earth.

⁶ The heauens haue shewed forth his iuftice: and al peoples haue feene his glorie.

^a In figure of Chrifft,

^b whose bodie rofe the third day after his death: to whom manie returned beleuing in him after his refurrection, which fel from him in his paffion: and to whom al thinges fhall be fubdued, as to their true Lord, in the day of iudgement.

^c Holie Daudid, and other Prophetes hauing great ioy to fee long before in fpirite only, Chrifts kingdom extended in the whole earth, yea to the Ilandes, we Ilanders haue great caufe to be gladde, that God hath not only fo bleffed vs long fince, but as yet conferueth feede, wherby we truft the whole Iland fhall be againe reftored vnto him.

^d As in a cloud with terror God gaue his law to the Iewes: fo in a cloud with greater terror and maieftie, he wil iudge the world;

^e not as manie corrupted feates of iudgement, in this world, but as a corrected tribunal, where iuftice and right iudgement fhall be practifed.

^f Thefe thinges are denounced as if they were alredy donne, for the affured certaintie therof.

7 Let them al be confounded, that adore ^{a)}sculptils:
and that glorie in their idoles.

Adore him al ye his Angels: 8 ^{b)}Sion heard, and was glad.

And ^{c)}the daughters of Iuda reioyced, becaufe of thy iudgements ô Lord.

9 Becaufe thou Lord moft high ouer al the earth:
thou art exalted excedingly aboue al goddes.

10 You that loue our Lord, hate ye euil: our Lord keepeth the foules of his faintes, out of the hand of the finner he wil deliuer them.

11 Light is rifen to the iuft, and ioy to the right of hart.

12 Be glad ye iuft in our Lord: and confesse ye to the memorie ^{d)}of his sanctification.

^a As wel the worhippers of grauen, or painted images of Iupiter, Mars, Bacchus and the like, as the worhippers of the fame imagined false goddes shal be confounded.

^b The Catholique Church.
