

Psalme 110

Praife of God for benefites, 4. especially for the B. Sacrament of the Eucharift, 6. with other graces imparted to the Catholique Church.

Graces geuen to the Church.
The 6. key.

Alleluia.

I ^{a)}wil confesse to thee ô Lord with al my hart: in ^{b)}the counfel of the iust, and ^{c)}the congregation.
² The workes of our Lord are great: exquifite according ^{d)}to al his willes.

^{3 e)}Confession and magnificence his worke: and his iustice contineweth for euer and euer.

⁴ He hath made ^{f)}a memorie of his meruelous workes: a merciful and pittiful Lord: ⁵ he hath geuen ^{g)}meate to them that feare him.

He wil be mindful for euer ^{h)}of his testamēt: ^{6 i)}the force of his workes he wil shew forth to his people:

⁷ To geue them the inheritance of the gentiles: the workes of his handes truth, and iudgement.

⁸ Al his commandmentes ^{j)}are faithful: confirmed for euer and euer, made in truth and equitie.

⁹ He fent ^{k)}redemption to his people: he commanded his testamēt for euer.

^a This Pfalme in the Hebrew is composed with euerie verfe and middle of verfe, beginning with a distinct letter, in order of the Alphabet.

^b I wil praife God both in secret for discharge of myn owne conscience, ^c and in publike for edification of others.

^d Gods wil is the whole cause of al his workes.

^e Euerie worke of his is praife worthie, and magnificent.

^f God hath leift one most special and beneficial memorie of al other benefites, his owne bodie and bloud, in memorie of his Passion, and our redemption,

^g the spiritual foode and sustinance of al the foules that rightly feare him.

^h Of his promise to conferue his Church perpetually.

ⁱ The powrable operation of his death, and of al his mysteries.

^j Gods commandments do iustifie al that kepe them.

^k He also of his mercie redemed man; that he might be able to kepe his precepts.

Holie, and terrible is his name: ^{10 a)}the feare of our Lord is the beginning of wifedom.

¹¹ Vnderftanding is good to al that doe it: his prayfe remaineth for euer and euer.

^a Beginning with feare of God, bringeth at laft by other degrees to true wifedom, which two are the firft and laft of the feuen giftes of the Holie Ghoft.
