

Psalme 114

The prayer of a iuft man in tribulation, with confidence and gratitude towards God.

A prayer, with praife of God. The 7. key.

Alleluia.

I <sup>a)</sup>haue loued, becaufe our Lord <sup>b)</sup>wil heare the voice of my prayer.

I <sup>f)</sup>haue found tribulation and forow: <sup>4</sup> and I <sup>g)</sup>inuocated the name of our Lord.

O Lord deliuer my foule: <sup>5</sup> our Lord is merciful, and iuft, and our God doth mercie.

<sup>8</sup> Becaufe he hath deliuered my foule from death: mine eies from teares, my feete from fliding.

<sup>9</sup> I <sup>i)</sup>wil pleafe our Lord in the countrie of the liuing.

<sup>a</sup> I am induced to loue God,

<sup>b</sup> becaufe he alwayes heareth my prayers.

<sup>c</sup> So long as I fhall liue.

<sup>d</sup> VVhen I erred like a ftray fheepe from thee, the paines of death,
<sup>e</sup> and the danger of hel-torments, both due for finne, inuironed me,
and I was not ware therof:

<sup>f</sup> But by tribulation falling vpon me, I came to knowe my dangerous eftate:

<sup>g</sup> turned to thee, and prayed as foloweth:

<sup>i</sup> I wil endeouore to pleafe God, in the congregation of thofe that liue here in grace, and in heauen in glorie.
