

Psalme 120

The iust reioyce that their prayer is heard, and that God continually protecteth them.

Gods protection.
The 3. key.

A gradual Canticle.

I haue lifted vp mine eies vnto ^{a)}the mountaines,
^{b)}from whence helpe shal come to me.

² My helpe is from our Lord, who made heauen and earth.

³ Geue he not ^{c)}thy foote to be moued: neither doe
he flumber that keepeth thee.

⁴ Loe he shal not flumber nor fleepe, that kepeth
^{d)}Ifrael.

⁵ Our Lord kepeth thee, our Lord is thy protection,
vpon thy right hand.

⁶ By day ^{e)}the funne shal not burne thee: nor ^{f)}the moone by night.

⁷ Our Lord doth kepe thee from al euil: our Lord kepe ^{g)}thy foule.

⁸ Our Lord kepe thy coming in, and thy going out:
from hence forth now, and for euer.

^a Towards Ierufalem, and towards heauen.

^b Al helpe cometh from heauen, that is, from God, who of his diuine ordinance especially heareth prayers made in holie places.
3. Reg. 7.
