

Psalme 133

Al, and especially clergie men that ferue the Church, are inuited to prayfe God by day and by night, fo shal they be bleffed of God.

God continually to be praifed.
The 1. key.

A gradual Canticle.

Loe <sup>a)</sup>now bleffe our Lord, al ye the feruantes of our Lord:
Which ftand in the houfe of our Lord, in the courtes of the houfe of our God.

<sup>2</sup> In the nightes lift vp your handes vnto the holie places, and bleffe ye our Lord.

<sup>3</sup> Our Lord out of Sion bleffe thee, who <sup>b)</sup>made heauen and earth.

---

<sup>a</sup> This laft Gradual Pfalme, as a conclufion exhorteth al to praife God:

<sup>b</sup> for to this end he made al creatures in heauen & in earth.