<sup>a</sup> God our Lord whom al creatures are bond to praife, only accepteth thofe mens praifes, that liue in his holie Church.

<sup>c</sup> Hieght praifes of God fhall be continually vttered by Sainctes in glorie: for ftill as praifes paffe by their tongues and mouthes, more like praifes fhall fuccede from their throte, and hartie affection, fo out of the abundance of the hart their mouth fhall ftill fpeake Gods praife.

<sup>d</sup> Glorified Sainctes fhall alfo haue iudiciarie povvre. Firft, al in general fhall like and approue Gods iuftice in punifhing the vvicked. Secondly the vvicked fhall be iuftly condemned in comparifon of the bleffed, vvho paffed through, and ouercame the like, yea and greater tribulations and tentations then thofe, by vvich the damned vvere ouercome. Thirdly, certaine more excellent Sainctes, namely the Apoftles, and al thofe that forfaking proprietie of temporal goodes, geue that they haue to the poore, as fome religious Orders doe; or into a Communitie as the Apoftles, and manie primitiue Chriftians did (Mat. 4. v. 20. Cap. 19. v. 17. Act. 4. v. 34. 1. Cor. 6. v. 3.) fhall fitte in iudgement feates, affefforie iudges with Chrifft, and iudge thofe that render account, of wel or euil fpending the temporal landes or goodes, which they poffeffed in this vvorld. So teach S. Auguftin, S. Beda and others.
