

Chapter 16

Agaynft the king of Ifrael, king Afa procureth helpe of the Affyrians, 7. which a prophet reproving is put in fetters. 11. Afa dieth, with difeafe of his feete, and is buried with pompe.

3. Reg. 15.

And in the fix and thirtieth yeare of his reigne, came vp Baafa the king of Ifrael into Iuda, and with a wall compaffed Rama, that none could fafely goe out and come in of the kingdom of Afa. ² Afa therefore brought forth filuer and gold, out of the treafures houfe of our Lord, and of the kinges treafures, and he fent to Benadad the king of Syria, who dwelt in Damafcus, faying: ³ There is league betwen me & thee, my father alfo and thy father had concord, wherfore I haue fent thee filuer and gold, that breaking the league, which thou haft with Baafa the king of Ifrael, thou make him retire from me. ⁴ Which being knowen, Benadad fent the princes of his hofte to the cities of Ifrael: who ftroke Ahion, and Dan, and Ablemaim, and al the walled cities of Nephthali. ⁵ Which when Baafa had heard, he ceafed to build Rama, and intermitted his worke. ⁶ Moreouer Afa the king tooke al Iuda, and caried away the ftones of Rama, and the timber that Baafa had prepared for the building: and he built of them Gabaa, & Mafpha. ⁷ At that time came Hanani the prophete to Afa the king of Iuda, and fayd to him: Becaufe thou haft had confidence in the king of Syria, and not in our Lord thy God, therefore hath the armie of the king of Syria efaped out of thy hand. ⁸ Were not the Æthiopians, and Libyians manie moe in chariotes, and horfemen, and a multitude exceding great: whom, when thou didft beleue in our Lord, he deliuered into thy hand? ⁹ For the eies of our Lord behold al the earth, and geue ftrength to them, that with perfect hart beleue in him. Thou therefore haft done foolyfhly, & for this caufe from this prefent time fhall battels arife agaynft thee. ¹⁰ And Afa being angrie agaynft the Seer, commanded him to be cast into fetters: for he tooke indignation exceedingly vpon this thing: and he flewe of the people at that time verie manie. ¹¹ But the workes of Afa the first & the laft are written in the Booke of the kinges of Iuda and Ifrael. ¹² Afa alfo fel ficke in the nine and thirtieth yeare of his reigne, of a moft vehement ^a)payne of his feete, and neither in his infirmitie did he feeke our Lord, but rather trusted in the arte of Phifitians. ¹³ And he flept with his fathers: and he died the one and fourteth yeare of his reigne. ¹⁴ And they buried him in his fepulchre, which he had digged for himself in the Citie of Dauid: and they layd him vpon his bed ful of fpices and odoriferous oyntementes, which were made by the arte of apothecaries, and they burnt it ouer him with exceding ambition.

^a Iust punishment with paine of his feete, for iniurioufly putting Gods prophet in fetters. v. 10. So God punished him temporally, for that and other paffionate finnes: and he died in good ftate, for his hart was perfect al his dayes, (Chap. 15. v. 17.) that is, moft part of his life, especially in his laft dayes.
